

LOCAL

Mrs. Brewer made a business trip to Tacoma last week.

Mrs. Armstrong, of Idaho, arrived on Tuesday to visit her sister, Miss Skipton.

Mr. Brace, property clerk, was in Mill City on school business a few days this week.

A half-dozen of our boys enlisted during the past ten days, some in the army and others in the navy.

Miss Callista Reinville, class '13, is now employed at the Umatilla Indian School as small boys' matron.

The anthem by the choir on Sunday evening was particularly pleasing. Miss Brewer is gradually improving the quality of the singing.

It is rumored around the campus that Mr. Stewart, the school plumber, has arranged to enter the army as one of the plumbing brigade. He is a good plumber and a willing worker.

The football banquet will be given tomorrow night. Reggie Downie will act as toastmaster, and also be the principal speaker on that occasion. Much regret is expressed that Coach W. J. Warner cannot be present.

Mr. Ross, campus gardener, secured 500 rose slips and an equal number of geraniums from the State House gardener on Tuesday. He also arranged for 300 two-year-old rose bushes, all to be used in beautifying our Chemawa grounds.

Mr. John A. Blessing, who needs no introduction to Chemawa folks, arrived yesterday and took charge of the engineering departments. He was chief engineer for some months last winter and Chemawa welcomes him back again on the difficult job.

A large delegation of girls attended the basketball practice on Tuesday evening. There are a dozen candidates for every position. Coach Downie has his hands full, but is enthusiastic over the prospects for a fast team to play against the colleges and high schools.

Arrangements have just been completed by Mr. Devol, principal, whereby the senior class will occupy the class-room on the first floor of the academic building. The painters have been busy painting and otherwise freshening up the room in order to render it more cheerful.

The monthly social for the employes held on Thursday evening last in the gymnasium was a unique and pleasant occasion. The "Hoover" refreshments were especially enjoyed and shows what a really good time can be had for a "jitney." Mr. Loos, Miss Mitchell and Miss Lemley was the committee in charge of the social life at Chemawa for December.

Y. M. C. A.

The boys are up and doing things in the Y. M. work this year. Ivan Anderson led the last meeting, the topic being: "A Young Man and His Church."

Many members responded with good brief remarks, telling how the church could help the young man and how the young man could help the church.

Frank Peratrovich and Clyde Fields rendered a very good cornet and saxophone duet, which added to the liveliness of the meeting. Frank also aids materially in the song service with his cornet.

At the close of the meeting Mr. Hood gave us many helpful remarks on the topic and the disuse of profane language.

Next Sunday Rev. Gill of Salem will address the Y. M. and Y. W. members at their regular joint meeting on the subject, "Why We are at War." A number of our students heard Mr. Gill address the Salem High School student body on the same subject and they say he held every one spellbound through his entire talk, so the members are looking forward to his coming with much anticipation and cordially invite all employees and students to be present to hear him, for it undoubtedly will be a rare treat.

HONOR ROLL FOR NOVEMBER

Preparatory

Ella Davis, Margaret Grey, Bernice Kenny, Alma Mischell, Robert Baulne, Elmer Belleque, Raymond Belcour, Jack Bruno.

Third Grade

Mary Lavadore, Cecelia Gordon.

Fourth Grade

Lena Cleveland, Katherine Ridley, Alice Wilson, Walter Tripp, Josephine Woods.

Fifth Grade

Sarah Adams, Carrie Anderson, John Emanoff, Ben Hanif, Charles Kipp, Sam Pablo, Hazel Peconom, Delphine Paulin, Mary Richardson, Mary Motanic.

Sixth Grade

Katherine Matte, Doris Hoxie, Anna Peratrovich, Amy Bern, Joseph Johnson, Maggie Bennett, Delorah Keeler, Viola Byers, Elizabeth Churchill, George Churchill.

Seventh Grade

Henry Carmichael, William Frazier, Thomas Hoaglin, William Sandaine, Catherine Loftus, Ruth Jones

Eighth Grade

Effie Davis, Logan Fann, Edward Hayden, Mildred Hoover, Elizabeth Montgomery, Marina Nelson, Nicholas Petellan, Agnes Stewart, Marie Stone, Ruby White.

Ninth Grade

Julia Gromoff.