

LOCALS

Everyone is glad to see Laura Squiqui out again after her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Jaquins were guests of Miss Scholder at Sunday dinner.

Miss Skipton took dinner at the Teachers' Club on Sunday as a guest of Mrs. Doherty.

Everyone appreciates the way Bernard Sanderson faithfully sticks to his post at the pianola.

The Brewer Hall boys, as well as all Chemawa, are proud of their recently acquired service flag.

Services were held as usual Sunday afternoon in the auditorium. Rev. A. T. Lacey from Salem talked.

Inspection is reported to have been unusually good Sunday morning. Every building was in excellent condition.

Mrs. Fulkerson is delighted with her new vocational nurses, Elizabeth Montgomery and Louise Silverthorne.

Joseph Keeler, brother of the Keeler girls, and Wright Smith, an acquaintance, have been spending a few days at Chemawa.

Dorothy Perkins left for Portland on Sunday. She will make her home with her brother and sister while attending High School.

Only a few of the girls went walking Sunday afternoon on account of the rain. Some, however, under the chaperonage of Miss Roberts braved the weather and took a short walk.

Mrs. Woods speaks very highly of her new detail. It is composed of 5th grade girls and it is a pleasure to hear they are doing so well.

Miss Wooten was surprised last week to have a relative who is attending the Theological College at Willamette University, call on her. She was not aware that she had relatives in the Valley.

Chemawa has two regular weekly inspections, one of which takes place on Wednesdays and the other on Sunday mornings. The former is by the Disciplinarians and Matrons—the latter by the Superintendent and company officers.

The return game between the girls' team of Salem High School and Chemawa which was to have been played on Saturday afternoon in Salem was postponed on account of the serious illness of the mother of one of the prominent players on the Salem team.

Every one at Chemawa was glad to see Marguerite Reinville on the campus Saturday. She is a former student of Chemawa and was very popular while here. She has been attending St. Mary's Hospital in Walla Walla, Washington, and will graduate this June.

George Lekanoff, vocational carpenter, has completed quite a number of mission chairs for use in the living room of Winona Hall.

The carpenters are busy tearing down the old gymnasium used by the girls in former days. It will be rebuilt and used for an onion dry house.

Many of our employes and students are attending the spectacular presentation of "Cleopatra," in Salem, by Theda Barra and her splendid company.

The first year vocational class in domestic science under Miss Lemley's direction cooked and served the dinner for the Silverton basketball team on Friday.

The school harness department has made and shipped 18 sets of double harness to various schools and agencies. Orders are in for about a dozen more sets.

A social was held Saturday evening in the gymnasium. A small admission fee was charged and ice cream cones were sold, the proceeds being turned over to the athletic fund. Mrs. Brewer had charge of making and selling the ice cream and her interest is very much appreciated.

A couple of days ago Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Larsen passed through Chemawa en route to Klamath Agency, Oregon, where Mr. Larsen has accepted the position of clerk and his wife a situation as cook. Both of these young people are well known here and many friends will wish them unqualified success in their new field.

Chemawa was very proud of Allison Stone as he walked into the gymnasium during the social Saturday night. He is on his way to New York and was so eager to stop at Chemawa that he jumped off the train as it passed the school and walked in to Salem to join his regiment. We are glad to see him looking so well.

A circular letter has recently been sent around by Superintendent Hall showing the necessity of preservation of clothing in order to have a sufficient amount for next year. He urged rigid economy along all lines. In order to aid in this the matrons are establishing mending rooms in each dormitory to look after buttons and small rents, etc. This improves the looks of the lines as well as nearly doubling the life of the garments.

A sufficient number of the Willamette Red Cross Chapter met at Mrs. Hall's Thursday evening to formulate plans for organizing a Chemawa Auxiliary as well as to elect officers. Mrs. Hall was chosen as President; Mrs. McCrosson, Secretary, and Miss Scholder, Treasurer. As soon as the organization has been completed a general meeting will be held. There are quite a few knitters among the number, Mrs. Brewer, Miss Skipton and Miss Mitchell heading the list.
