COOKING DEMONSTRATION

The sixth grade prevocational girls, under Mrs. Brewer, gave a cooking demonstration on Monday afternoon at which convincing evidence was given of the progress and proficiency of the class. No doubt it was hard for them to make such a demonstration with the numerous substitutes which are in vogue at present, but the exhibit of war bread and various other dishes was most creditable in every way to both the girls and their teacher. Following is a list of the girls and what they had on display:

Ora Duncan—White bread, war bread, meat loaf, barley and corn quick bread.

Amy Bern—Corn muffins and barley cake, both 100 percent substitute, and strawberry jelly.

Minnie Jones—Roast, meat "chartreuse," and tomato sauce.

Rosie Lambert—Mashed potatoes, marshmallow pudding.

Elizabeth Churchill—Peach jelly.

Mildred Hoover—Mashed potatoes and bran cookies.

Julia Bradley—Cornbread and Liberty cake.

Vera Anderson—Cornbread and sponge cake.

On Tuesday morning the girls of the other division of the class gave a splendid demonstration, as follows:

Alexandria Anderson—Meat loaf.

Annie Jones—Whipped prunes.

Eva Hood—Oat flour bread and corn meal bread.

Viola Beyers—Barley strawberry shortcake.

Mary Damon—Boston roast and tomato sauce (substitute for meat and butter).

Agnes Demontier—Mock veal and prune fluff.

Annie Peratrovich—Barley bread, cornmeal bread, peanut loaf and tomato sauce.

Esther Countryman—Mashed potatoes, rolled oats and Boston roast.

Dorris Hoxie—Barley layer cake.

Rena Blacketer—Corn meal muffins, mashed potatoes.

Delphine Toulou—Cheap chocolate cake and butter.

Irene Curl—Eggless chocolate cake.

Sophie Anderson—Fruit salad.

Julia Fratis—Barley layer cake and pineapple salad.

Katy Matt—100 percent war biscuits.

Mrs. Brewer is still having demonstrations for her various classes of prevocational girls—all of great excellence. Her recipes for various war edibles excite most favorable comment and such recipes are being copied promiscuously.

CHEMAWA DEFEATS WILLAMETTE

"Spud" Liphart bought the game from Willamette Saturday at the close of the seventh inning when he stepped to the plate and tapped one of Adams' fast ones for two bases. From then on Chemawa kept the ball on the bounce and the bases full. At the close of the game the score stood 4 to 0 in Chemawa's favor.

The contest proved interesting from beginning to end and was the snappiest one staged here this season. Big Wallace Adams stood on the mound for Willamette; he struck out six men and was touched for seven hits. Bettles, for Chemawa, struck out eight and allowed four hits.

MUST REGISTER

Wednesday, June 5, has been officially designated as Registration Day throughout the United States, for all young men who have attained the age of 21 years since draft registration one year ago.

On Wednesday, June 5, every 21-year-old man must appear at the registration place designated by his local draft board and register.

The only exceptions are men already in military or naval service. Special arrangements have been made whereby absentees and those too ill to appear at the registration places may register by mail.

But they must all register. Failure to do so makes the guilty young man liable to imprisonment for one year. And ignorance of the fact that June 5 is Registration Day will not be accepted as an excuse. The burden of informing themselves as to the place and date of registration is placed on the men themselves.

June 5 has been selected as the date for Registration Day because it is the anniversary of the first draft Registration Day, when approximately 10,000,000 men between the ages of 21 and 30 years, inclusive, registered for the draft.

This Registration Day is only for men who have reached the age of 21 years, thus coming within the draft age, since last Registration Day.

Registration will be in charge of the local boards in their respective districts. They are required to post immediately a list of the registration places.

These registration places will be open from 7 o'clock the morning of June 5 until 9 o'clock that night. They will be in charge of the local draft boards.
