

The CHEMAWA AMERICAN

Published Weekly at the Salem Indian Training School
Chemawa, Oregon, HARWOOD HALL, Superintendent
Address all communications to Ruthyn Turney, Manager

Entered at the Chemawa, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-Class Mail Matter

SUBSCRIPTION - - 25Cts PER ANNUM

SIXTH SQUADRON BEATEN BY CHEMAWA, 21-0

Scoring three touchdowns and converting three goals, our boys defeated the fast Sixth Spruce Squadron team, of Vancouver, Wash., last Saturday afternoon. The soldiers were unable to gain consistently against Chemawa, who played brilliantly throughout the entire game.

The game was replete with sensational plays, excepting during the first half, when both teams played cautiously, the game being hard fought, neither side having any advantage over the other.

Whatever Coach Hauser lectured to his charges during the intermission, must have been worth while listening to, for our boys got to going at the beginning of the second half. Displaying more fighting spirit and better offensive tactics, they rushed the soldiers off their feet. The scoring started four minutes after the whistle blew for the beginning of the third period when, with the ball on their own forty-yard line, the visitors attempted to punt out of danger, but Spearson blocked the kick, Ell recovered the ball, Johnson and Nuckolls rushed the ball to the Soldiers' five-yard line. Choate carried the ball across for the first touchdown. Hauser added another point by converting the goal kick.

During the next few plays the Soldiers opened up with several successful passes, but failed to make enough yardage to be considered dangerous and were forced to punt. Bettles caught the ball on Chemawa's fifteen-yard line, and raced through a broken field, eluding the would-be tacklers till he reached the three yard line, where Liligren overtook him. Choate, with splendid interference, annexed the second touchdown. Hauser kicked goal.

Hauser opened the last quarter with a kick-off to Low, who returned it ten yards. The Soldiers failed to make yardage and were forced to punt. Our boys then smashed down the field, varying their plays with line bucks, wide end runs, a thirty-yard pass, Bettles to Hauser. On the next play Choate raced twenty-two yards across the visitors' line for the final touchdown. Hauser again kicked goal. During the last few minutes of play, the contest was evenly matched.

The whistle blew with Chemawa having possession of the ball on the Soldiers' forty-yard line.

Once more the outstanding feature of the game was the fighting spirit displayed by the entire Chemawa team, also their clean playing and sportsmanlike conduct on the field, only one penalty being inflicted on Chemawa, that of an offside play.

Mr. Bent and Mr. Sanders were the officials and Mr. Chamberlain was head linesman. There was no complaint whatever of their handling of the game.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

Reliance

The Reliance Literary Society met in the auditorium on Friday evening, Nov. 15. The meeting was called to order by the president, James Choate.

Mr. Devol announced that the society must prepare for the annual spelling contest to be held December 27.

After roll call and the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, eighteen new members were admitted. The society members were entertained by the following program:

Song—"Keep the Home Fires Burning;" Recitation, Irving Grey; Guitar Solo, Earl Potts; "Our Trip to Chemawa," Enos Hines; "Your Country Needs You," Four Boys; "The Day's Demand," Albert Spearson.—Charles Ell, Reporter.

ATTENTION

Plans are being made for the Annual Box Social to be held on Saturday eve, November 30th. The arrangements for the affair are in the capable hands of the Sigma Phi Delta girls and the profits will be used to give Christmas cheer to Chemawa's little folks.

Girls, get your baskets ready!

Boys, save your nickles and dimes!

Joseph Bettles left school last Monday to go to Washington that he may help his father run a large farm. The place was recently purchased by Joe's father, who sent an S. O. S. call for Joe. We shall miss him, for he has been here the greater part of his life. His ambition has always been to make good—and in nearly every instance he has done so.

The following interesting program was rendered during chapel last Sunday evening: The orchestra played a "Spanish Bolero," by Eno; a girls' sextette sang "Lady Chlo," by Clough-Leighter; the choir sang "Forth From the Dark and Stormy Sky," by Briggs; Eleanor Houck recited "Good-by, Jim," by James Whitcomb Riley; Supt. Hall read a very strong paper on "The Unwilling Student." As conducted by the Superintendent, the exercises were made very patriotic in character by the singing of songs of military and thanksgiving color.