

The CHEMAWA AMERICAN

Published Weekly at the Salem Indian Training School
Chemawa, Oregon, HARWOOD HALL, Superintendent
Address all communications to Ruthyn Turney, Manager

Entered at the Chemawa, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-
Class Mail Matter

SUBSCRIPTION - - 25Cts PER ANNUM

VANCOUVER AND CHEMAWA TIE

In one of the hardest games witnessed this season on the local gridiron, the Medical Detachment of the Post Hospital of Vancouver, played Chemawa a tie on Thanksgiving day. The "Fighting Medics," invaded our fair campus with a clean record, having two wins and no defeat to their credit.

Promptly at 2:00 p. m. Vancouver kicked off to Chemawa. Our boys failed to make yardage and were forced to punt. Vancouver rushed the ball from the 46-yard line and succeeded in making first down twice before Chemawa stopped them.

During the first half the game was see-sawed back and forth near the middle of the field. In the third quarter the soldiers had the edge of the game, when they carried the ball to Chemawa's 12-yard line, only to lose it on downs when Chemawa's defense stiffened up.

Chemawa's best opportunity to register a touch-down came in the last period when Downie carried the ball 35-yards, placing it on the visitors' 10-yard line. Nuckolls and Hauser made seven yards, but on the fourth down, with three yards to go, Downie attempted a forward pass to Hauser. It was incomplete. The game ended with Vancouver in the shadow of her goal posts.

The work of Bill Johnson and Choate featured for the home team, with Nuckolls, Hauser and Downie overtime to help Chemawa.

Livingstone and Most were easily the stars of the visitors. Vancouver used the old-style tandem formation to advantage.

LOCAL

About 3,500 bushells of potatoes were raised this year.

Mrs. Doherty spent Thanksgiving day as a guest of her niece in Salem.

Miss Skipton and Mr. Turney ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Brewer and family.

Mr. Wright, engineer, was confined to his room a couple of days recently with a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk and Uintah ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Kirk's mother in Salem.

All of the fall sowing of grain and hay is completed, and much ground is being ploughed for spring use.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders and Reuben Jr. were guests of Mrs. Teabo at the teachers' club on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ratzburg on Thanksgiving, forming another family group.

Quite a number of outsiders were attracted here by the game of football on Thanksgiving Day. They were well paid.

Superintendent and Mrs. Hall ate Thanksgiving dinner as the guests of Miss Scholder and Miss Mischell at the teachers' club.

Miss Evelyn Woods came up from Portland to spend Thanksgiving with her parents. She holds a position in a Portland bank.

Washington Fann, brother of Logan Fann, visited here on Thanksgiving. He is in the army and is stationed at Vancouver Barracks.

Sergeant Harvier Adams, formerly a student of Phoenix, was a guest of Miss Hendrix over Thanksgiving. He is stationed at Fort Rice, near Spokane.

May Adams spent the week-end at Chemawa with her many friends. She expects to return to school about Christmas to enter Business College at Salem.

Catherine Reed, a Chemawa graduate last year as vocational nurse, is now regularly employed as assistant nurse at the hospital. She is competent and dependable.

Henry Campbell spent Thanksgiving here. He had to report back to service at Seattle on Monday morning. He expects to be given his release from the naval reserve soon.

Mrs. Wentworth, who has been ill for some time, was able to be down stairs for her Thanksgiving dinner in the club dining room. Her many friends rejoiced to see her out again.

Simeon Fratis, now in the navy and located at Bremerton, spent Thanksgiving here with his mother and sisters and friends. He will soon be transferred to San Pedro, California, for service.

Preparations have been about completed for the open session of the Winona Society of girls on Friday evening next. All who attended the previous entertainments given by the Winonas expect a treat.

After several days spent with relatives and friends at Chemawa, Mr. Loulin Brewer returned on Sunday evening to Tacoma, where he has employment in a shipyard. He has been in the yard for a long time and has been awarded the foremanship with a crew.