Fina Nelson, Alaskan, entered school Monday.

Lizzie Delaney and sister Millie arrived at Chemawa on Monday.

Active farming operations are going forward this fine weather.

Mr. Clark Stewart, our assistant farmer, is the happy "dad" of twin girls. Mother and twins are doing finely.

Mr. Charles Demmert, of Bay View, Alaska, spent a couple of days here last week visiting his children who are enrolled at the school.

The new office will be located across the "track" at the junction of the walk leading to the academic building and hospital. It is a fine location.

The prevocational grades are making ready to produce a good entertainment on Washington's Birthday. They say the vocationals will "sit up and take notice" when the play is produced.

About fifteen of the boys attended the Whitman-Willamette basketball game at the Salem Armory last Thursday evening. It was a good game and Whitman College had the big end of the score at its termination.

The Indian appropriation bill as it passed the house contained provisions for $15,000 to be expended next year for a steam heat system and $25,000 for repairs and improvements, besides $122,000 for maintenance at Chemawa.

Mr. E. H. Hammond, late Superintendent at Cushman School, Tacoma, Washington, has been transferred to the position of Assistant Supervisor with headquarters in the southwest. Mr. C. V. Peel, special agent, is in charge at Cushman.

Mrs. Lizzie McCorquodale, assistant seamstress, has been transferred as seamstress to the Warm Springs Boarding School. She leaves tomorrow. Mrs. "Dale" has made many friends at Chemawa by her kindness, gentleness and amiability.

Rev. Father Gall, Mr. and Mrs. Walker and two lady friends from San Francisco visited the school last week. One of the ladies is a fine vocalist and she favored the student body during the dinner hour with songs, which were greatly appreciated.

The Chemawa girls' basketball team will do battle with the team from Salem High in our gym tonight. Only girls will be allowed to witness the game. Friday our girls will meet the same team in Salem. The next game will be at Silverton with the High School team. The basketball squad at Chemawa is composed of Rose O'Brien, Eleanor Hauk, Marion Wasson, Effie Davis, Rose Goff, Maud Potts, Edna Hill, Marguerite Chamberlin, Clara Morais, Jessie Cleveland, Mabel Blodgett and Louise Joshua.

The Willamette Glee Club gave a splendid recital in our school auditorium last evening, in the interest of the Chemawa Y. M. C. A. The entertainment was well patronized and enjoyed.

Miss Hendrix and Miss Hedrick, assisted by Miss Eakin, Miss Judd and Miss Brunette, held a "house warming" in their quarters on Monday evening, having as guests a number of the Chemawa ladies. From meager reports there must have been a number of unique features which caused much merriment. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening. The ladies who are domiciled in the new employes' quarters are delighted with the possibilities of the quarters and homelike atmosphere.

During the course of chapel Sunday evening the orchestra played the "Barcarolle" from "The Tales of Hoffman" by Offenbach, Russell Adams who was visiting the school, sang "For You Alone" by Geehl, Ruby White recited "The Fool," by Service, the Octet Girls sang "The Oars are Plashing" by Geibel, the choir sang "The Sinner and the Song" by Thompson. At the conclusion of the service Supt. Hall delivered a splendid address to the students, taking for his topic, "Reputation and Character." There was truth in every utterance, and it was given with conviction.

ENTERTAINMENT BY RELIANCE BOYS

The annual open session of the Reliance literary society, composed of boys, was held on Friday night. The earnestness with which these boys entered into this program was commendable in the extreme, each number being well rendered. A recitation, "My Bachelor Chum," by Louis Colby, a double quartette, another recitation, "The Better Way," by Charles Buchert; guitar solo by Earl Potts and an accordion solo by George Nix, all of which were of much interest, preceded the real feature of the evening, "A Quick Lunch Counter," a comedy. This entertainment was purely a boys' program, and they succeeded. This comedy was well received by the audience, many compliments being given the various actors.

A sketch in which Gus Gartiez and Louis Van Pelt were the principals followed the comedy, after which a camp scene and Indian dance were given. This was a splendid portrayal of an old-time Indian pastime; the red lights making it quite realistic. The songs and dancing were splendid. Roy Nuckolls made the speech of welcome and the entire society sang an original song in unison. Miss McDowell is the advisor for the Reliance Society and divides the honor for this very enjoyable and successful entertainment.

LITERARY SOCIETIESWinona

The Winona Literary Society adjourned their regular meeting on Friday evening to attend the public session of the Reliance Society. They showed their appreciation of the very excellent program by songs, yells and enthusiastic applause.
