

LOCAL

Mrs. Cox made a hurried trip to Portland on Sunday, occasioned by the sickness of her son.

Andrew Fox and Thomas Hoaglin are rapidly mastering the art of operating the big school truck.

Dr. John R. Sites, Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich and Miss Holman of Salem were special guests at the Nonpareil party Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Turney have moved into one of the new modern bungalows. The cottage just vacated by this couple will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Chapman.

The cement sidewalk just completed joining the new employes' quarters with the general side walk system is a needed improvement and much appreciated by the occupants of the new quarters.

Frank P. Corbett, of Idaho, who has been attending Washington State College, has entered the Willamette University at Salem to take up the law course. Frank will make Chemawa his home while completing his studies.

One of the most up-to-date social events of the year took place last Thursday evening under the auspices of Mrs. Sherman, Miss Scholder, Mrs. Eaton, Mr. Sanders and Mr. Loos, in the Teachers' Club building, being the regular employes' party. It was largely attended and voted a splendid affair. The "Rogues' Gallery" consisting of silhouette pictures of different members of the faculty was a work of "art" and all present endeavored to guess the originals, with considerable success, too. The refreshments were most delectable. Prizes for the successful winners in the games were awarded to Mr. Bradley and Mrs. Mason.

The annual party given by the girls of the Nonpareil society in our gym on Saturday evening last was one of the most charming of the year. No little pains were given in decorating the large room with streamers of purple and gold, which together with dozens of society, class and Chemawa pennants and potted plants, the whole scheme artistically carried out, made the gym a thing of beauty. In addition to games and social chatter a program was given. The large balcony was filled with small tables, which the entire party of 130 persons sat around, being served with sandwiches, coffee, pickles, cake, ice cream and oranges. It was an enjoyable affair throughout, greatly to the credit of Miss White, society advisor, and members.

CHEMAWA VS. O. A. C.

On last Wednesday evening Chemawa's victorious basketball team won its sixth consecutive game, defeating the O. A. C. Freshmen 24 to 21. This proved to be the snappiest and closest game of the season. The first half ended 14 to 6 in favor of the collegians. Our team did not play up to par in this half either in team work or basket shooting, but they came back in the second half strong and with the pep, speed and determination that had made them victorious in the preceding games and it had the same effect in this one. The last half was a regular whirlwind. Never have we witnessed our Chemawa boys play better. It is doubtful if any team in the Northwest could have defeated our team on this night.

With eight points to overcome the boys battled on and with seven minutes to play the score stood 21 to 19 in favor of O. A. C. The remainder of the game was played around Chemawa's basket and the boys annexed five points to their credit while their opponents got only a few long unsuccessful shots at their goal, the game ending in our favor.

Bettles featured for Chemawa in this game with several long shots from the center of the floor, while Gregg for the Freshmen made seven points.

LITERARY SOCIETIES*Winona

The regular meeting of the Winonas was held in room 9 on Friday evening and an unusually good program was given. Josephine Corbett was the committee member in charge and read an excellent number of the "War Whoop." Others appearing were Amy Bern, with a recitation; President Martin, an address; Maggie Gardipe some clever pen pictures; Annie Miller, impromptu, Catherine Reed, an original story, Esther Blodgett, current events, Delora Keeler, local jokes, and Maude Craig, Lucy Sexton, Agnes Henderson, Emma Carlson, Marion Bremner and Edna Willett in several vocal numbers. Emma Carlson and Mildred Hoover each gave instrumental numbers. Mr. Welch was very complimentary in his remarks to the society and the girls showed their appreciation by singing several "good bye" songs.

At the Winonas' election the following officers were chosen: President, Julia Gromoff; Vice-President, Hattie Martin; Secretary-Treasurer, Louise Silverthorne; Cheer Leader, Mabel Blodgett; Sergeant-at-Arms, Marina Nelson and Ann Sexton.

CHEMAWA VS. SALEM HIGH*(Girls)

Not to be out-done by the Varsity in their winning streak the Chemawa Co-eds annexed a second victory by defeating the Salem High 13 to 4. Like the Varsity the girls are putting up a brand of pep and team work that brings victory. Wasson at forward was the stellar for the Indians, making the most points for her team. Jeff, her running mate, who is the midget of the team followed the ball well. Hawk at center played the position well and acted like a veteran. By the score made by the visitors we must give the credit to the two guards, Cleveland and Goff, for letting the visitors down with only four points.

The team has been minus their team-mate, Rosa O'Brien, who is the mainstay of the team and we shall see her in rest of the games; with her in the line-up we shall be much stronger. We meet the O. A. C. Co-eds in the near future.

After the game last Wednesday evening Mrs. Hall invited the two basketball teams and some of the rooters from Salem to her residence where refreshments were served.

Company "A" of the Boys' Battalion have all been fitted out with the new uniforms and caps; they are well made and fit fine. Company "B" will soon be wearing the new uniforms.

The cross country team is training daily for the big Portland News meet to be held this month. There will be a good many representatives from the different Athletic Clubs and Colleges. We sprung a surprise at the Championship Meet last year and we are going to do something this year.
