Percy Minesinger sang well in chapel Sunday evening.

Three new students from Cooks Inlet, Alaska, arrived on Saturday.

Mrs. Mason, cousin of Mrs. Vandagriff, was here for a visit last week.

Little Bobbie Ferry was sent to the Fort Lapwai Sanitarium on Saturday.

The hospital screens have been thoroughly overhauled and made good.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Murphy, of Salem, were callers at the school on Sunday.

Charles Ell has been kept busy making window and door screens for the various halls.

Mr. Frank Chamberlin is chief engineer and assumes the added responsibility like an old veteran.

Russell Adams was a visitor the first of the week. He has a position at Vancouver, Washington.

The ground in front of the new employes' building has been spaded up and made ready for seeding.

Joseph Bettles, dairyman, has had his force of boys making many necessary repairs to the hog pens.

Delora Keeler and Ola Fairweather have been filling the position of hospital cook and they are doing well.

The smaller boys of the school have been having track meets and basketball games with Mr. Bent in charge.

Many remembered what Mr. Hall said Sunday evening and went to work and school with a smile on Monday.

Rehearsals for the Senior play and school entertainment to take place early in June is the chief order of the evenings.

The girls make a very neat appearance in their new spring uniforms. They wore them on Easter day for the first time.

Just as soon as the weather permits the boys' battalion will be taking setting up exercises out of doors before breakfast.

The laundry has been closed the past week on account of the railroad strike. Many more sufferers well as Chemawa people.

It looks pretty much like we have enough rain and wind during the week to make up for the good weather we have Sundays.

Mr. Bent annexed himself to a lawnmower one day last week and mowed the lawns south of Brewer Hall. They look much better.

Frank and Josephine Corbett were suddenly called to their home in Idaho on Saturday on account of the death of a little brother.

The carpenters have finished and fitted up window and door screens for the two cottages occupied by Mr. James and Mr. Chapman.

The big beautiful cup won by Albert Spearson in the cross-country race in Portland, and the one won by Joe Racine, also the two pretty medals won by James Choate and Axel Johnson, are now in our trophy room at Mitchell Hall.

Superintendent and Mrs. Hall entertained at dinner Thursday evening, the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, Miss Skipton and Mrs. Vandagriff.

Even though we were inconvenienced considerable by the lack of coal, heat and lights, yet school and work and everything else went on just the same as ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, accompanied by Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Canfield and Mrs. Eaton, took advantage of the beautiful day on Sunday and drove to Mt. Angel.

Mrs. Brewer left on Sunday for a visit with relatives at Tacoma, Washington. She has not been well for some time and it is hoped the change will be beneficial.

Three hundred wintergreen uniforms, army style, are on the road. We have been very patient, but hope they will arrive before the end of the year. Our boys need them.

A large crowd of boys accompanied the team to Salem last Saturday afternoon to witness the game with the state prison team. Even Supt. Hall and Mrs. Hall found time to witness a few innings of it.

Nick Hatch, who is attending the Benson Polytechnic School at Portland and taking an electrical engineering course, is making a fine record in his work. It is said that he is leading the class. This speaks well for Nick.

A car of coal was unexpectedly received on Monday which enabled the power house to start up in full blast. It brought smiles and comfort to everybody, for all Chemawa had been without heat and lights for almost a week.

When the good weather finally sets in we are expecting to hear a lot of out-door concerts by the band. Music has become an essential to life and we require it. Band, come to the rescue. Not that we haven't any other music here, but because we would like to hear from the band.

Charles Eder left on Monday for his home in Montana in response to a call from his mother to assist in planting a crop. During the past winter he has been attending Salem Business College and has made a splendid name for himself at that institution. Principal Staley phoned out to Supt. Hall that Charles was the best student that he had ever had in his college. Pretty good, isn't it? Charles did not quite complete all work necessary for a diploma and intends to return later, when he can be spared from home, and finish up in every branch.

Chapel services last Sunday evening were of the most interesting character. The orchestra played "The Rainbow" by Plunkett, Marina Nelson sang "Just be Glad" by Galloway, the Boys' Octet sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" by Molloy, George Barrett played "The Swan" by Saint-Saens as a cello solo, the choir sang "The Haven of Life" by Bristow, the solo part being well sung by Percy Minesinger. The talk of the evening was given by Supt. Hall. His remarks were addressed directly to our seniors, high school and business college students, and were exceptionally fine, taken from any standpoint. The talk was full of sound sense intermingling with beautiful sentiment and idealism. It was splendid.
