CHEMAWA ADDS LUSTER TO HER GREAT NAME

Events of Varying Character Help Entertain Numerous Visitors

MEMORABLE COMMENCEMENT

In all the Years that Chemawa has Existed She Never Entertained Her Guests With so Many Widely
Differing High-Class Programs

Commencement has come and gone. Nineteen fine upstanding young men and women have graduated. The week's program as planned was carried out to the letter and with great enthusiasm and was by far the finest commencement held in recent years.

Our baccalaureate services on Sunday evening were fine and beautiful. Rev. H. N. Aldrich delivered the sermon, which together with the musical program, was inspiring. The decorations for the occasion were exquisite. Many visitors pronounced the sermon as one of the best they ever listened to. The following is the program:

The band concert and full dress parade by the boys' and girls' battalion during the afternoon elicited much applause by the large concourse of visitors.

The Declamation contest on Monday was the principal event, although the baseball game between the Excelsior and Reliance societies and band concert were most enjoyable. The delamatory contest was attended by a full house and intense interest was shown. The winners were William Frazier, first prize; Hattie Martin, second; and Arthur Johnson, third. The judges were Mrs. Della Crowder-Miller, Miss Sterling and Mr. Ronald Glover, all of Salem. Following is the program:

The interclass field sports took up the greater part of Tuesday morning and from the report of the starting gun at 9 a. m. to the very last event at 11:30 the air was filled with cheers, songs and clapping. It was a field meet long to be remembered. Some records were broken and every event was of a high class. The boys had trained faithfully. The Sophomores won the meet. James Choate was highest point winner with Arthur Johnson and Axel Johnson tied for second place.
