CHEMAWA OUTCLASSES PACIFIC U—104 TO 0

In 1913 Chemawa defeated Pacific College 93 to 0. In 1915 we defeated Albany College 72 to 0. But in no instance have we ever walloped any team as bad as we did Pacific University here last Saturday—104 to 0.

Though the P. U. team fought gamely every second of the contest they were no match for the husky Chemawa eleven. They deserve credit for being dead game sports. Though defeat stared them in the face from the very first minute they put up a plucky fight and gave all they had till the end.

The contest was clean and free from roughness and unsportsmanlike conduct. During the entire game there was not one penalty inflicted upon either side for other than off-side play. After the game and the three long rahs for each team the men shook hands and walked to the gym arm in arm amid the shouting and cheering of the spectators. There is glory and sport in a game like that for both teams and we admire the losers as much as the victors.

It seems that our team struck its real stride in the last two games. The entire eleven played as one big machine. Behind every play there was formation and power. Every time Captain Eder, Sampson and Choate plunged through the line there was yardage gained. It could not help being so, for "Lupps" Peratrovich and Bob Downie on the right side of the line and the Nix brothers on the other opened up holes big enough to drive a horse and cart through.

The open field running of Sampson and Choate was the feature of the game and was prettier than we have witnessed anywhere.

The 104 points registered were pretty equally divided between Eder, Sampson and Choate. Long end runs and forward passes were plentiful. Several netted us from 20 to 60 and even 80 yards. Captain Eder's toe was in excellent condition and he converted 14 out of a possible 15 kicked goals.

In Johnson we have one of the best centers Chemawa has produced in many years. His passing is accurate and he backs up the line to perfection. He not only played a good game Saturday but has been playing good steady ball all season. Liljegren played a good defensive game at left end and also completed two forward passes for big gains. This is Edwin's first year on the varsity and he promises to be a real valuable man in the future.

The one thing most marked in this game was the manner in which our men carried the ball. Every man plunged into the line, full force, and used every ounce of his weight and speed to carry the ball forward. In every instance the ball was carried to or past center from the kick-off and for long gains through the line. In fact, the P. U. team could only put up a feeble defense against the powerful line and aerial attack of our 'varsity.

"HOTSHOTS" DEFEAT SALEM HIGH SCHOOL— 7 TO 0

On Armistice Day the band and a large crowd of Chemawa rooters accompanied our second team to Salem where the game between our "Hotshots" and the high school team was played.

Led by the band, our rooters marched to the W. U. field where 2,000 Salem spectators had assembled to witness the contest. Seated at one end of the big grandstand our rooters did some real live cheering and singing to the accompaniment of the band. The entire crowd stood and sang while the band played "Chemawa, we will love thee forever" as our team trotted onto the field.

This is the second time our boys took the high school team into camp. Early in the season our second team defeated them 20 to 12 and they chose Armistice Day to even up the defeat. But there was no such luck. The defensive work of our "Hotshots" was superb and too much for Salem, allowing them to make first down only once. Only once did the Salem team get within scoring distance and that was when they failed to make a place kick from the 35-yard line.

Early in the fourth quarter Liljegren grabbed a forward pass which netted us 45 yards and a touchdown. Bettles kicked the goal. On the kick-off the "Hotshots" carried the ball well into the center of the field. On the first rush Bettles made a long pass to "Jew" Buchert, who carried the ball within five yards of the goal line. The boys were on the march to another score when the final shot was fired.

SENIOR NOTES

William Frazier read a good theme on Friday.

Clarence Edwards is the honor student of his class this month.

The domestic science classes are to serve one week longer before the change of detail.

Nancy Matthison, a Y. W. C. A. member, accompanied the choir to Salem on Friday evening to sing.
