Didn't it rain!

Miss Jessie Dodge White, Secretary of the Women's American Baptist Home Mission Society, spent a day at Chemawa this week.

Prepare your hearts and billet-doux! Next Monday is St. Valentine's Day—a time when impassioned and irrational declarations fill the air.

A basketball game between Chemawa and Pacific University will take place on our floor next Saturday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock.

Still it rains, interfering with our farm work. It has been a very mild winter, practically no frost but the wet weather has been incessant.

Next Saturday is Lincoln's Birthday. There will be demonstration in various parts of the world in honor to his memory. There is honor due him.

The second year vocational Domestic Science class entertained at a seven-course dinner on Monday night in honor of Mr. Conser. As usual the girls did fine.

Dr. and Mrs. John R. Sites and Mr. and Mrs. Miller Bevier and little daughter, of Salem, were guests of Supt. and Mrs. Hall and other Chemawa friends last Sunday.

Miss Ruth Brewer left yesterday for Ft. Simcoe, Wash., to remain indefinitely with her sister, Miss Ella. Mrs. Brewer was to accompany her as far as Portland.

Agnes Swanson, who has been teaching temporarily at Chemawa, has gone to Warm Spring, Oregon, to take up work in the boarding school as a teacher. She is a graduate of Chemawa.

Charles Eder, one of our boys, put in something more than 13 hours last Monday at special work in a clerical capacity for one of our state senators. This shows that Charles is making a name for himself.

Miss Elizabeth Reinville, member of our 1919 graduating class, has accepted a position at Chemawa as assistant matron at Winona Hall. Until recently she has been residing in Walla Walla, Wash. Many friends are glad to see her back at Chemawa.

Mr. F. M. Conser, Superintendent of the Sherman Institute, has been a welcome visitor at Chemawa for the past two days. Mr. Conser addressed the student body on Sunday evening and has been visiting the departments since. He is a man who has had a great deal of experience in the Indian work, having entered the service thirty years ago as a clerk in the Indian Office and afterwards was supervisor, special agent, chief clerk in the Indian Office and is now superintendent of the big Indian school known as Sherman Institute at Riverside, California.

OUR CHAPEL SERVICE

On Sunday evening, at chapel, Supt. Conser of the Riverside Indian School was our guest and our speaker. He was introduced by Supt. Hall and most graciously responded and in the course of his remarks made many statements regarding Supt. Hall's service to our government as a teacher and leader in the cause of the Indian students of our great commonwealth. Every utterance of Supt. Conser was listened to attentively and was proof of the splendid things Supt. Hall said of him by way of introduction. He made a good talk—one showing humor, heart and practicality. All were pleased.

During the evening the orchestra played "Cathedral Chimes" by Arnold-Brown, a septet of girls sang "The Stars are Brightly Shining" by Bronte, Eleanor Hauk gave a recitation, George Barrett gave as a 'cello solo a "Cradle Song" by Godard, an octette of girls sang "The Fairy Song" by Parks, William Frazier gave a reading, Frank Peratrovich gave as a cornet solo "Lassie o' Mine" by Walt, the choir sang "The Light of the World" by Brackett. The service from start to finish was one of interest.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The second semester begins this week in the Salem schools. All of our students will continue their work.

There are now nineteen students attending the University, business college, and high school in Salem.

Miss Roberts, Mitchell Hall matron, is of valuable assistance to our high school students when in need of help.

The high school, university and business college students are much indebted to Mrs. Brickell and her detail for the appetizing lunches given them each day.

Charles Eder recently received a grade of 100 percent in a bookkeeping test at the Capital Business College. The principal of that school reports that Charles is one of the best students he has ever had.

Y. M. AND Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The Y.M.C.A. met in the Mitchell Hall parlor on the evening of the 6th for a short meeting. Mr. Harold Eakin of Salem was present and addressed the boys. He gave a very interesting and helpful talk and inspired the members to do bigger and better things. Mr. Eakin especially emphasized the duties of the cabinet officers, individually as well as collectively. He is an experienced man in the "Y" work and has been the "guiding star" of the "Hi Y" in Salem for some years. After his talk the new cabinet officers each gave a talk and after the benediction we adjourned.
