

LOCAL

Soon we shall have another Memorial Day with us. Let us hope it does not rain.

Miss Elizabeth Rainville has been enjoying a visit from her sister from Adams, Ore.

Supt. and Mrs. Hall entertained Mrs. Brickell, Virginia and Eldon at dinner on Sunday.

Miss Skipton suffered some indisposition for a few days recently, but we are informed that she is herself again.

Eldon Brickell, who is working on the Salem Capital Journal, spent Sunday, "Mother's Day," with his mother.

Mrs. Alice Fitch arrived on Sunday night to visit her sister, Mrs. Risser. Mrs. Fitch has made her home in Los Angeles for several years.

Martha Fratis came down from Marshfield to attend the Sigma party. She will remain until after Commencement visiting her mother and sisters.

A photographer from Salem took advantage of the beautiful day on Sunday and was much in evidence taking views of our students and beautiful campus.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bowen were chapel visitors last Sunday evening. Mr. Bowen was industrial teacher here a number of years ago and at present is living on his place near the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall motored to Silverton on Friday night, accompanying Julia Gromoff, who took part in the preliminary State Forensic contest. Carrie Anderson and Henrietta Chamberlin were also in the party.

The list of girls who are to take advantage of the Outing System this summer is now being made up and places are being secured. A number of girls went out last year and the system is to be extended this summer.

Mr. Albert H. Gillet, who for several years was teacher of agriculture at Chemawa, paid the school a visit last Saturday. At present Mr. Gillet is located in Albany, Oregon, where he is one of the teachers in the high school.

Frank Corbett, who has been attending Willamette University for the past two years, left for his home in Idaho on Sunday afternoon. Frank was a member of the school band and they were all at the station to give him a proper "send off."

Supervisor and Mrs. H. G. Wilson, stopped at Chemawa for a short time on Sunday afternoon, enroute to Taholah, Wash., where Mr. Wilson will be engaged for some time looking up fishing rights for the Indians. They expect to soon be established in their own home at Roseburg, Ore.

Supt. E. L. Chalcraft of Siletz Agency passed an hour or two with Chemawa friends last Friday evening. He is a man of vast experience in the Indian service. He was for many years superintendent at Chemawa and other schools; he has filled many demands in the service and at present is superintendent of all Indians in Oregon west of the Cascade mountains. Supt. Hall and Supt. Chalcraft first met at an Indian Service Employees' Convention held at Chemawa nearly thirty years ago and both are hale and hardy men yet—vigorous mentally and physically.

Charles Eder left on Tuesday to accept a position as bookkeeper in the Reclamation Service at the Ft. Peck Agency, near his home. Charles has just graduated from the Salem Business College and it is said he is one of the best students ever sent out from this popular business school. During the winter he has been keeping books for a business firm in Salem. The best wishes of all Chemawa go with him.

Henry Jones Ford stopped off between trains on Sunday to visit Miss Fee. Mr. Ford is a prominent essayist and publicist. He was a former member of the Inter-state Commerce Commission, and is now doing special work for the Commission. He is the author of a "Biography of President Wilson," which was published in the Atlantic Monthly and also a "Life of Alexander Hamilton" just issued by Scribners. He was a professor of politics in Princeton University. We were glad to have this opportunity to meet Mr. Ford.

SENIOR NOTES

William Frazier, Reporter

The four senior boys representing the track team contributed fourteen points which helped cause the defeat of our old rival, Willamette, on Sweetland Field last Friday.

On Friday last, the seniors spent a part of a period summing up their daily averages for the year. Prospects for all graduating seem bright, for so far every one has passed in his daily grades.

Edwin Liljegren surprised everybody by taking first in the 440-yard dash in the meet held at Willamette. Eddie has been a faithful worker on the track and great improvements can be noticed in his short career as a track man.

SUPT. HALL ADDRESSED SENIORS

On Tuesday morning, when Supt. Hall entered the senior room, Edwin Liljegren as president of the class of '21 welcomed him by saying it was a custom for the seniors to request and receive a little classroom talk from Mr. Hall once during the year and that the class of '21 was very proud and pleased to have the honor of hearing such a talk.

Mr. Hall's brief address was particularly fine and the seniors gave most earnest attention to every word. He urged them to take on the responsibility of making the very most of every ability which they possessed for becoming real men and real women. He told them no matter what their work in life might be each one could ennoble and dignify that work by bringing to its execution the full force of a man's power. Mr. Hall tersely expressed his thought by saying: "Do not be content with merely making a living: Make a life."

The class sang several songs and after some informal talk with their Superintendent cheer leader Nuckolls lead them in nine long "rahs" for Mr. Hall. Good-byes were exchanged and Mr. Hall left the seniors of 1921 a little more thoughtful and with new inspiration.

After school one senior remarked: "Mr. Hall always gives good talks, but this was the best he has ever given, I'm sure." Several others who were present agreed heartily.
