Ten tons of prunes have been dried and put away for winter use.

The Sigmas met for their first "get-to-gether" last Sunday evening at Mrs. Hall's.

Miss Earlougher will act as Librarian this year in addition to her regular teacher's work.

The Autumn leaves are falling fast and it keeps the yard detail busy clearing the lawns and walks.

All Chemawa, and especially the Sigmas, welcome Josephine Corbett back after several month's absence.

Superintendent Hall was called to Portland on business one day last week. As usual he made a hurried trip.

The furniture that was on exhibit at the Fair is being distributed in the different living-rooms in the students' quarters.

Several Chemawa people attended the concert given by the Whitney Boy's Chorus, at the Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon.

The Literary Societies met and organized last Friday evening. Two junior societies have been organized this year, making six in all.

The cement porch which has been under construction at the Gym is now completed and is certainly a great addition to that building.

Mrs. Alice Fitch left for her home in California last week. Mrs. Fitch made a great many friends while visiting her sister, Mrs. Risser, here at Chemawa.

New additions to Chemawa's faculty this year are Miss Bagby of Washington, D.C., Miss Gunn of Windsor, Mo., and Miss Hawk, who are in the academic department.

Dewey Sampson has joined the orchestra in the capacity of trombonist. We predict that he will make good on the slide as "making good" has become a habit with Dewey.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jaquins have returned from Washington, D. C., where they have been for several months. They have returned more in love with the Golden West than ever.

Mr. Lawshe, the Superintendent of the Couer d'Alene Reservation in Idaho, accompanied a party of children to Chemawa last week. He remained for a few days' visit and made many friends while here.

An important industry that has been added at Chemawa is the poultry department. It would be well worth your while to visit the poultry yard and see the five hundred fine white leghorns. Mr. Henry Turner, who has charge of this work, is justly proud of his chickens.

An announcement has been received of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. William Watkins. Mr. Watkins will be remembered as a former student of Chemawa. He and his family are now residing in Chicago.

The boys' exhibit at the State Fair, were more extensive this year than ever before, and much favorable comment was heard on all sides. Plans are already being formulated to have a bigger and better display next year.

Mail is arriving for Supervisor Coon and we are expecting him to arrive at any time. We are sorry that he was not able to be here in time to see our exhibit, as we feel that we have every cause to be very proud of the showing.

For the past five years Chemawa has had a most creditable exhibit at the State Fair. This year we put forth greater efforts and filled the entire west end of the main building, eclipsing by far any exhibit at the Fair. All departments were represented.

Miss Ruth Brewer, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Katie Brewer, is to be married to Mr. Jack Denny of Unity, Oregon, October 5th at the home of her mother. Miss Ruth met her fiance while attending the Oregon Agricultural College, of which she is a graduate.

The month of September is one of the busiest months of the entire year. Every effort was put forth to get the plowing well started and the prunes dried, the silo filled with ensilage, the State Fair exhibit in readiness, hop picking, canning of later fruits and vegetables, together with the beginning of school, gave everybody their hands full.

Chemawa started up with every department well organized and effective work began on September twelfth. Each year our students are arriving more promptly. At present we have between 600 and 700 fine young men and women on the grounds. The enrollment limit has been reached.

Chemawa Day at the State Fair was a tremendous success from start to finish. Even the weather conspired to make the occasion a happy one. Our six hundred boys and girls were to our minds—and the same was voiced by many at the Fair—the nicest looking, most well behaved young people in the entire aggregation.

Commissioner of Education, Mr. Tigart, of Washington, D. C., and his private secretary, together with State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mr. Churchill, were guests of Supt. and Mrs. Hall at the Chemawa booths at the State Fair last Monday a week. They all expressed the greatest surprise at the showing made. Edna Napoleon did the honors in serving punch at the Domestic Science department.

During chapel exercises last Sunday evening in addition to the singing of the congregation the orchestra played "Moment Musical" by Schubert, a quintet of girls sang "Trusting Forever" by Wilson, the choir sang "Jesus, Redeemer" by Hall, and Supt. Hall gave an unusually fine and able talk. These talks by our Superintendent are always on lines of practicability, hence are of the greatest value to all, students and employes.
