SILVERTON 30, CHEMAWA 18

We are not offering any alibis for the defeat of our varsity at Silverton last Thursday night for we know that our squad is certainly not a world beater, but after starting the season with a win the first game and holding the victors to a one-point margin in the second, then take an overwhelming defeat by a 30 to 18 score in the third by a team inferior to the two previous teams played, it appears that our team had a case of over-confidence in the first place and stage-fright in the second. Buchert, forward, was way out of form and was unable to locate the basket, while George did not get going anyway near usual form till the second half, although both had numerous chances. Abraham put up his usual good game at guard while his side partner, Phinney, played far below par and allowed his man to make several easy baskets. Dandro George was our high man with 12 points. The rest were made by Buchert, DePoe and Phinney, with one field basket apiece.

The team work and passing of the ball by our tossers was unbeatable, but their inability to hit the basket and the failure to keep one man under our goal spelled our defeat.

Norwest replaced Buchert at forward in the latter part of the game.

OUR GIRLS DEFEAT SILVERTON'S QUINTET

Our girls played the preliminary to the boys' game at Silverton last Thursday night and came home with the long end of the 31 to 13 score dangling from their belt.

It was a cracker jack of a game. Coach Rose Downie took along seven players and each one played an important part in the defeat of their white sisters. Those who made the trip are as follows: Madeline Wilder, Maud Potts, Grace Morigeau, Oka Paulina, Daisy Ballard, Cecelia Smith, Cora Black and Coach Downie.

Silverton has always been known for their swift basketball teams and it has become the habit in the last few years for our girls to set their traps for Silverton and for a long time now they have succeeded, but never before have they been quite so successful as they were last Thursday night.

Wilder and Downie, forwards; Morigeau, center; Paulina and Ballard, guards; started the game and waded right in with the first pop out of the box. The clever passing of our two forwards and center was too much for Silverton to solve. These three have the passing game worked up to where it is an art. Silverton, seemingly, could not find them till the ball was in the basket. Slippery as eels we would say.

Early in the first period when our team had a safe lead the coach sent Potts in at forward; Smith, center; and Black, guard, and each one displayed her wares well.

Although playing a losing game the Silverton team "carried on" and put up a plucky fight to the end.

Rose Hamilton, a former member of the Winona literary society of Chemawa, is now Mrs. Milton E. Moore and is living in Browning, Montana. She has a baby girl nine months old and has named it Winona in honor of her society.

During the two-weeks' absence of Mrs. Vandagriff the detail of girls composed of Anna Brendible, Catherine Booth, Martha Edelman, Margaret Johnson, Susan Cain and Ramona Tripp received many compliments from the club members for the splendid meals served. This speaks well for these young girls who have carried on this work so efficiently for so long a time.
