

The CHEMAWA AMERICAN

Published Weekly at the Salem Indian Training School
Chemawa, Oregon, HARWOOD HALL, Superintendent
Address all communications to Ruthyn Turney, Manager

Entered at the Chemawa, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-
Class Mail Matter

SUBSCRIPTION - - - 50 Cts PER ANNUM

LITERARY SOCIETIES

Joint Meeting

The Winonas joined the Reliance in a meeting in the auditorium on April 6. After roll-call business was dispensed with and the following program was enjoyed by both societies:

Winona Spirit	- - - -	W.L.S.
Reliance Song	- - - -	R.L.S.
Guitar Music	- - Paul Keta, Raymond Haldane
Recitation	- - - -	Clara Hamilton
String Thingamaling	- - - -	Carrie, Ruth, Helen
Vocal Duet	- - George Johnson, Aaron Isaacs
Recitation	- - - -	Harry Frost
Dialogue (Without Words)	- - - -	Six Winonas
Winona Girls' Chorus	- - - -
- - - -	Charlotte, Mabel, Ramona, Emma, Evalyn
Prophecy (of Reliance)	- - - -	Eva O'Bryan
Prophecy (of Winona)	- - - -	Robert Johnson
Recitation	- - - -	Katie Phares
Instrumental Trio	- - F. James, Evans, Shepard
Winona War-Whoop	- - - -	Lucile LaCount

It was a splendid program, all members promptly doing their share of the work. Our visitors, Mrs. Brickell and Roy Courville, both expressed their enjoyment of the evening.

The Winona president, Carrie Anderson, was in the chair and the Reliance secretary, Robert Johnson, was at the recorder's desk.

Adjournment was followed by one more cheer from Reliance and the joint-session of 1923 was over.

Excelsior

The Excelsiors held their regular meeting in the laboratory last Friday evening. After the roll was called, a short but well-prepared program was rendered as follows:

Song	- - - -	Members
Spring board	- - - -	James Brooks
Spring fever	- - - -	Ernest Hill
Watch Spring	- - - -	Louis Trombly
Spring Jokes	- - - -	John Petellin
Spring flowers	- - - -	Jesse Morgan
Spring birds	- - - -	John Dexter
Spring clothes	- - - -	Robert Peratrovich
Debate, "Resolved, That Spring is more beneficial to mankind than winter."		Affirmative, Robert Chamberlain and Antony Tyler; negative, John Edelman and Eugene Boudry.

The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

After a short business session the society adjourned with the usual songs and yells.

Y. M. AND Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Last Sunday evening a joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., Climbers' Club and L. L. L. chapter, was held in the Auditorium, to listen to an address by Rev. Mr. Laughridge, who has lived for many years in India. This came as a fitting close to the mission study course on India, and a large crowd of students greatly enjoyed the splendid talk by Mr. Laughridge. Wallace Morgan presided at the meeting, and John Dexter played a beautiful violin solo.

On Easter day fifty of the students united with the Protestant Church at Chemawa, at a very delightful service conducted by Rev. Ward Willis Long of the Presbyterian church in Salem. About half of these members came by certificate from their home churches, the rest making the first public confession of their faith. An especially beautiful feature of the service was the baptism of the three Hauser children, Mary Emily, Wauseca, and little Peter Hermann. A communion service followed the reception of members. Mr. Long was assisted in this by eight members of his session. Mrs. Long delighted the students by singing "Open the Gates of the Temple." The auditorium was beautifully decorated for the service with quantities of Easter lillies, Oregon grape, and flowering quince.

SENIOR NOTES

Every senior volunteered a splendid recitation in current events again this week.

The senior pennant was taken out for repairs recently and now looks as good as new.

Operetta practice, a short period two or three times a week, is bringing out the voices.

There are indications that a great many improvements are to be made in the senior homes this summer. The contest essays are the authority.

Because of the absences of some of the teachers, William Minthorne, Erma LaClair and Albert Orsen have all been temporary teachers for a few hours this week.

On Easter the class table was started and it really seems like the beginning of the end when the seniors withdraw to their very own table for the rest of the year. Miss Skipton never forgets this custom and the classes never forget Miss Skipton.

Mrs. Iliff visited Salem Thursday p. m. on school business.

Grace Morigeau and Lena Swan are assistant matrons in Winona.