About 1,000 additional little chicks hatched out yesterday. This is the third lot, making 2,500 for the spring.

From present appearances it looks like Brewer Hall will carry off the prize for uniformly best kept rooms on the boys' side.

Our ice machinery went on a strike last week. And it required the help of an expert from Portland to put it in working order.

Girls of the 1923 class are constructing white organ-dy dresses for graduating exercises on May 30th. Suits are also being manufactured for the boys in our tailor shop.

Miss Southworth, who has been acting as matron in Winona Hall for several weeks, has returned to her class room in the academic building, and Mrs. Mable Gibson, recently appointed, takes her place.

Mr. Iliff, superintendent of industries, spent the greater part of last week inspecting lumber for the Indian Service at remote saw mills in Oregon.

Several thousand bushels of potatoes are still left in our store house, sufficient to provide for our needs until new potatoes put in an appearance late in July.

Governor Walter M. Pierce will address the graduating class and present the diplomas this year. Since 1917 the Governor of Oregon has been present at every graduating exercise and presented the diplomas to our graduates.

Mr. Oscar M. Waddell and wife entertained the student body and employees at chapel Sunday evening with several vocal solos. This estimable couple were associated with Superintendent and Mrs. Hall in the Indian school work at Perris and Sherman institute, California, nearly 25 years ago. Mr. Waddell was principal at Sherman and Mrs. Waddell teacher of music.

During chapel exercises last Sunday evening the orchestra played an "Andante" by Schlegel, Lucy Verney sang "The Swallows" by Cohen, Rose Gray recited "Race Prejudice," the Octet Girls sang a "Canoe Song" by Pestalozza, Harry Frost recited "The Party," Mr. Waddell, who was visiting the school, sang two beautiful numbers, and the choir sang "Extol Ye the Lord," by Shawker. The exercises were most pleasing in every way.

Catherine Madsen, who attended school at Chemawa for something like four years and who left a couple of weeks ago, was married since her departure to Mr. William Christensen at Seattle, Wash. Mr. Christensen is a seafaring man and travels out of Seattle for Alaskan ports. Catherine was a Sigma Phi Delta and was always a good girl while at Chemawa and has many friends here who will be pleased to hear of her marriage and will always be gratified to hear from her. Her address at present is 2023 Terry Ave., Seattle, Wash.

Varsity Defeats Prison Nine

In the first real struggle of the season our varsity defeated the state prison team at Salem last Saturday afternoon 4 to 2. Superior hitting and fielding by our tossers and stellar pitching by Phinney easily kept our team in the lead and out of danger.

Buchert, our lead-off man, started the scoring in the first inning and was followed by Atkins in the fourth, Dandro George in the sixth and by Atkins again in the eighth, while the O.S.P. team made their markers in the fourth and sixth innings. The seven hits registered by our braves were kept pretty well scattered so that they were not directly responsible for the scores. While the score registered by the prisoners can be charged to the wild throwing around the bases to catch the runners off.

A slight change in the line-up will probably be made before the next game and in all probability DePoe will be given a chance to show his wares around the first sack in place of Minthorne, who is a senior and playing his last year on the varsity. It is also quite likely that Claplanhoo and Dumore will be put in the outfield positions. Although the team looks fairly well for the first game of the season there is considerable nervousness both at the plate and on the field, with men on bases, that will have to be overcome before our tossers will be in top form.

With three games this week and each one a hard one our varsity will be taxed to the limit, especially the pitching staff, but in each game we should come out with the long end of the score. The game with Salem high school will be played here Wednesday afternoon, and the game with Mt. Angel College Friday afternoon. Salem with a State champion nine and Mt. Angel, easily the non-conference champions last year, will be games that will give our tamest spectators a thrill. Saturday the team will journey back to the state prison to give their team another trimming.

Our schedule is now filled and Mr. Bent is busy trying to switch dates to make it possible for our varsity to play in Portland on the 11th and 12th of May against Columbia University.

BATTALION NOTES

Father Gall's call of "sheep" broke up the drill period last Wednesday morning.

The boys tried the exercises of the rifle drill to the music of the band for the first time last week. Both organizations did themselves proud.

The officers of the girls' battalion have given up their recreation period between lunch and school hour to go to the gym to learn more of the "school of the company."
