

LOCAL

Miss Roddy enjoyed Thanksgiving with relatives in Portland.

Miss Borland took dinner with friends in Salem on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall were guests of the club on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Turney were dinner guests of Supt. and Mrs. Hall on Thanksgiving.

The painters are now putting on the final touches at the new addition to the Wigwam.

Supt. and Mrs. Hall were called to Portland on business during the first of the week.

Supt. Chalcraft came over from Siletz on Monday to confer with Supt. Hall on business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Iliff and family were guests of the academic teachers at the club on Thanksgiving.

Winona Hall has a new set of steps put in by the carpenters, running from the first to the third floor.

Christmas sale at the Domestic art room on Friday, Dec. 4. Let all come and look over our work and take tea with us.

Miss Juana Holmes of Mill City, Oregon, and Mrs. W. L. Skipton of Husum, Wash., were recent guests of Miss Skipton.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Arden, from Siletz, spent Thanksgiving with friends and relatives in Chemawa.

Mr. Stacy has the thanks of our entire force for his great assistance in securing "copy" for The American. He is doing fine work.

Many of the McNary Hall boys received boxes of eats for Thanksgiving. With Wm. Markistrum's box came several beautiful Indian baskets.

While the social was in progress at the gymnasium last Thursday evening the Hawley Hall girls were royally entertained by a program in their own building.

Captain Stacy spoke to each of the assemblies on Wednesday. Louis Dupuis and Williamette Blakeslee asked current event questions of their respective divisions.

Miss Lacy, of Salem, and Mrs. Carroll were temporary teachers last week, Misses Judd and David being ill. Wm. Johnson also substituted one day in Miss Thornhill's room.

Miss Edna Hill spent her Thanksgiving with her sister Harriett and other relatives at Chemawa. She is of the class of '22 and is training at the Emanuel Hospital in Portland.

Julia and Martha Fratis spent Thanksgiving with their mother in Chemawa. Martha is an ex-student while Julia is a graduate of Chemawa. Both are now employed in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bulgin spent Thanksgiving Day visiting friends and relatives in Chemawa. Mrs. Bulgin was Henrietta Chamberlain before she was married. She is a Chemawa graduate.

The "small" of McNary Hall and the "large" of Mitchell Hall played a game of football Thanksgiving morning. The Mitchell Hall boys won by a score of 13 to 0. Lafay Weaver starred for the winners.

Supervisor W. W. Coon departed from Chemawa last Saturday for California where he will pursue his work for some months. Mr. Coon is always a busy man while at Chemawa—and elsewhere, too, we'll wager.

Manager George W. Bent may pat himself on the back when he takes into consideration the fact that the team he has made plans for has not been defeated this season. This is enough to gladden the heart of any manager.

A seven-course dinner was served to the Kappa Alpha boys on Wednesday evening at the Wigwam. Supervisor Coon, Supt. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Brickell and Mr. Stacy were guests. Charles DePoe called upon each of the guests for remarks and all responded.

During chapel on Sunday evening the orchestra played the "Fest March" by Perfect, Grace Peterson sang "Where My Caravan has Rested" by Lohr, the octette girls sang "When the Roses Bloom" by Reichardt, Jacob Atkins gave a recitation, Raymond Haldane sang "My Own United States" by Edwards, the choir rendered "Sing Unto God" by Nolte, and Supt. Hall gave an exceptionally good talk in which he emphasized the importance now attaching to our school by reason of the educational credits allowed on completion of the courses here.

SUPT. AND MRS. HALL ENTERTAIN

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 24, 1925, the Chemawa employees spent a most enjoyable evening in the home of Supt. and Mrs. Hall. "Ye Old-Time Songs" were sung by the assembled guests with "Old-Time" spirit and fervor. Between songs readings were given by Miss Houk, Louis Dupuis and Mr. Stacy. Allan Shepard and Frank James gave a saxophone-baritone duet. Mrs. Turney, pianist, John Dexter, violinist, and Mr. Turney, cellist, gave a trio number for their instrumentation; a quartet of girls, Anna Peratrovich, Evelyn Whitebear, Grace Johnson and Edna Audette, sang a Thanksgiving song and responded to an encore with "Ole Virginy."

During the evening Mrs. Hall inaugurated two-minute exchange conversational periods, the subjects being announced by the hostess. This proved a most popular innovation at Chemawa, as was evidenced by the animated bursts of conversation which followed the announcement of the period and subject. During these periods most delicious "old-time" refreshments—punch, sweet apple cider, doughnuts, small cakes, and candies—were served.

Favors were given to the "good talkers" of the conversational periods and Supervisor Coon, Mrs. Leavenworth, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Carroll, Mr. Stacy and Christobel Iliff were the recipients.

It was a goodly company gathered in a fine home where, as ever, Supt. and Mrs. Hall proved ideal host and hostess, and the moments flitted on as if by magic and ere any one seemed aware of the fact it was time for "good nights" and expression to host and hostess of the real joy the evening had given the numerous guests. Indeed, it was an evening that will long be remembered by all who were so fortunate as to be in attendance.