

THE HOLIDAYS AT CHEMAWA

senting the Washington high school of Portland. This proved a fine game and was pretty hotly contested throughout. Our fans got their money's worth. When the final whistle blew it showed our boys on the big end of a 23-to-18 score. Right here we wish to state that Coach Downie and Manager Bent have treated us to an unusually fine sport series during the holidays—never better.

On Thursday evening a most delightful costume party was given in the gym by McBride Hall and Winona Hall girls to their friends. All went as "merrily as a marriage bell" and the event was in every way one of the most delightful parties of our holiday season. Prizes were awarded to those displaying the most originality in the matter of costumes. The evening passed all too quickly and terminated with the serving of delicious refreshments. It was New Year's Eve and it proved a memorable occasion for all. The young lady hostesses did themselves proud.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon of New Year's Day nearly everybody on the grounds repaired to the gym to witness contests in sports between representatives from the States and Alaska. From start to finish this proved an afternoon of thrills and kept the crowd on tip-toe. The States won the contest, but it was no walk-over and they had to extend themselves to win. It proved a most interesting meet in every way.

In the evening the younger pupils of the school were tendered a party in the gymnasium. This, too, proved a joyous time for all and our younger students will long remember the evening of New Year's Day, 1926.

On Saturday evening, Jan. 2, we closed our holiday schedule of events with a movie, "Classmates," featuring Richard Barthelmess. This proved a delightful close to our remarkable season of events. Who dares to declare that we did not have a glorious holiday season at Chemawa? We believe that all, from Supt. Hall down to our youngest student, will declare it the "best ever." We are now in 1926—let us settle down to business now and study and work hard that it may prove a year of real achievement and we can then be happy when the holiday season next arrives.

LOCAL

We are informed that Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bradley are now at Ft. Lapwai, Idaho, where Mr. Bradley has employment.

Mrs. Nettie Vandagriff, formerly employed at Chemawa but now living in Salem, visited with her friends here on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders and Miss Peters motored over to the agency at Siletz during the holidays week in order that Miss Peters might attend to some business matters.

Martin Colby was a visitor at Chemawa during the holidays. He was especially pleased to meet his brother Louis, who was also with us. At present Martin has employment at Vernonia, Oregon.

The Haskell Institute orchestra of Lawrence, Kansas, broadcasted a fine program last Monday evening. We were especially interested, as Mr. Melovidoff, director and 1st violinist of the orchestra, was a Chemawa boy.

In addition to our fine Christmas dinner for the students there were many private family dinners about the campus. A splendid dinner was served at the Employes' Club and many invited guests were privileged to enjoy it.

Mr. Mason, our carpenter, had the misfortune to get his left hand caught in a small circular saw, electrically driven, last Thursday morning, Dec. 31st. His hand was badly cut and it will be some time before he will be able to use it. It is a miracle that it was not cut off.

A few days ago we were visited by Mr. A. W. Funk of Crown Point, New Mexico. Mr. Funk is in the service, holding the position of farmer at the place named. He bore a letter of introduction from Mr. M. L. Devol, who is at present principal teacher at Crown Point, a position that he held at Chemawa some years ago. We were pleased to meet Mr. Funk and to hear from Mr. Devol.
