Cecile and Julian Smith were dinner guests of Miss Peters on Sunday.

Miss Gunn's brother-in-law, Mr. Rollo Larkey, of Klamath Falls, spent Sunday at Chemawa.

Dr. and Mrs. John R. Sites of Salem spent a few hours with Chemawa friends on Sunday evening.

Ernest Brunoe and Louis Pitt have turned out some splendid pieces of exhibit work during the past week.

The boys of the machine shop detail enjoyed a radio concert recently at Mr. Bewley's home. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Bewley.

Mrs. Ruth Denny and little daughter arrived on Sunday from their home in Meridian, Idaho, for a visit with relatives. Mrs. Denny is a daughter of Mrs. Brewer.

Saturday was the last day of the tonsil cases. Miss Borland, Mrs. Clark and the nurse girls deserve much praise for the splendid assistance given Dr. Collard—"So says the Doctor."

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Gibson have been transferred from Chemawa to a school in Utah. They had been employed here for several years and are excellent people and were well liked by all.

The Chemawa "Climbers' Club" first and second basketball teams played like teams of the Silverton Scouts recently. The second team won over the Silverton Scouts, while their first team lost by the score of 16 to 11.

The Girl Reserves spent Sunday afternoon checking on the requirements for the reserve ring which many of them are trying very diligently to earn. These rings will be given in June to those who have fulfilled the requirements.

Charley Moon gave a splendid lecture to the junior class on animals of the Arctic circle in his commercial geography work. Charley is from Alaska and besides his research work had much first-hand interesting information on his subject.

The machinists have been busy the last week overhauling the tree sprayer for the farm department. The upper classmen of the machinists are each going to spend a week in the blacksmith shop under Mr. Grover learning how to forge, weld and temper.

The father of Edna, Ida and Martin Audette has written a letter to Supt. Hall from his home in Polson, Montana, which places him in a most favorable light, for he is strong in his appreciation of what our great school is doing for his children. Such letters as Mr. Audette has written are fully appreciated by Supt. Hall and the rest of us. In passing on this matter we are pleased to add that Mr. Audette's children all stand high at Chemawa.

Mr. Mason, who was so unfortunate as to get his hand badly cut by a circular saw some weeks ago, is now on duty once more. However, his hand is still of little use to him and he is unable to do routine work, but he is improving nicely. It will be some little time yet before he can take hold of things in old-time form.

The Kappa Alpha boys held their regular meeting on Thursday evening, Feb. 11, 1926. Moses George and Albert Orr were absent, as they had had their tonsils removed. The entire evening was devoted to business. The boys are planning some social events of which they hope to be able to inform you at some later date.

On Friday noon Marlieta Davis and Josephine Summers served an eight-course dinner to Supt. and Mrs. Hall, Dr. Collard, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Brickell, Mr. and Mrs. Mason and Miss Skipton. Wednesday noon Emily Ivanoff and Ivy Dupuis served a like dinner to Supt. and Mrs. Hall, Miss White, Mr. and Mrs. Iliff, Mrs. Brickell, Miss Strout and Mrs. Brewer.

The Excelsior Literary Society held their last regular meeting in room seven in the academic building. The house was called to order by President Charles DePoe. The roll was called and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Then the house was open for business. Some business discussed was concerning caps and our joint meeting with our sister society, after which a good program was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Bruce visited friends at the school during the week-end. He is now employed at Silverton. He was accompanied to our school by Mr. and Mrs. Kleeb, also of Silverton. Mr. Kleeb is the manager of the large lumber mill of the "Silver Falls Co." Both he and his wife were loud in praise of what they learned of our great school. Mr. Bruce played with the orchestra during chapel on Sunday evening. He is expecting to go to Klamath Falls to locate before long.

During chapel on Sunday evening Supt. Hall spoke very strongly on the matter of loyalty on the part of our students in particular and of the value and importance of loyalty on the part of any one throughout life. It was a mighty good talk and was well received—as it should have been. The orchestra played a "Selection" from the opera, "Faust," by Gounod; Louis Dupuis sang "When the Ocean Rolls no More" by Petrie, the octette girls sang "Fleeting Days" by Bailey, Clifford McLeod gave a recitation, Reno Booth sang "Smilin' Through" by Penn, and the choir sang "Rejoice in the Lord" by Lowden. It was a good chapel.

The Wednesday assemblies this week were in charge of the junior boys' and girls' classes. In the morning the junior girls entertained in assembly with a program based on the poet, Shelley. Williamette Blakeslee gave a review of Shelley's life. Edna Audette recited "The Indian Legend" and Evelyn Iyal asked questions in Current Events. In the afternoon the boys' class based their program upon Wordsworth's life and works. Alfred Colgrove recited "The Daffodils" and Jesse Morgan gave a review of Wordsworth's life. The class sang their class song as an opening number and the class orchestra rendered two numbers in closing the program. Augustine Logan asked questions in current events.
