THINK IT OVER

We are not in the habit of making reprints, but the following article which is from the Mooseheart Weekly is so good that we give it space in the hope that it will help some reader to avoid "failure:"

1. Finding fault with another, but never seeing your own.
2. Doing as little as possible and trying to get as much as possible for it.
3. Spending too much time showing up another's weak points and too little time correcting your own.
4. Slandering those we do not like.
5. Procrastination—putting off until to-morrow something that we should have done day before yesterday.
6. Deceit—talking in a friendly manner to another's face, and stabbing him in the back as soon as he turns around.
7. False belief that we are smart enough to reap a harvest of pay before sowing a crop of honest service.
8. Disloyalty to those who have trusted us.
9. Egotism—the belief that we know it all and no one can teach us anything.
10. Last, but not least, lack of necessary training and education to enable us to stand at the head in our line of work.

Look this list over and check yourself up by it. If none of these causes for failure apply to you then you are to be congratulated because you are a success.

Mr. Kunkel and his boys have recently installed drinking fountains on the campus for the students.
