Basketball!!! Soon!!! Rah! Rah! Rah!

Look out!!! Pigs!!! You will be treated like turkeys tomorrow.

The seniors are glad to have Lawrence Pratt in school again.

Miss Covalt and Miss Davidson of Salem were hospital visitors last Thursday.

Dr. Olsen is again the school dentist. He came out last week for the first time this school year.

Leander Wilson and Eldred George were fortunate in having some of their friends visit them last week.

Ted Rosseau, a Dakota Sioux, has a driver's license and handles the Government car as though he grew up with a flivver.

The Sophomore class have completed the "Tale of Two Cities" and are now sojourning with "The Merchant of Venice."

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Kirk of Klamath Agency stopped in on their way to Portland last Wednesday. Mrs. Kirk is Harriett Hill's sister.

Mr. Bent accompanied Mrs. Edsell and son Edwin to Tulalip, Washington, this week. The trip was made by auto, Archie Greycloud driving.

Mr. Robert R. DePoe arrived here a few days ago from Neah Bay, Wash., for a visit with relatives. He has four sons enrolled in school here.

Margaret Maupin, a Junior and a Sioux from the far-away Dakotas, presided with dignity and grace at the last Sunday evening chapel exercises.

Miss Uintah Kirk of O. A. C. spent the week-end with her parents. Her friend and roommate, Miss Myrna Ramsyer, of Portland, accompanied her.

Supt. McGregor and Dr. Collard made a trip to Grand Ronde on Monday. It was purely a business trip and made despite the inclemency of the weather.

Quite a number of our football fans attended the game in Corvallis last Saturday between the University of Oregon and O. A. C. It proved a bad day for U. of O.

We hope that Chemawa's aggregation of young "bachelors" trounce the Portland "Bachelors' Club" properly in their football game in the metropolis tomorrow.

Frank Iyall, father of Evelyn of the senior class, was chosen as a representative from the Cowlitz tribe to go to Washington, D. C., to promote a claim of the tribe against the Government.

Miss Edna Doughty, a former Chemawa student, has returned to Seattle, Wash., from Alaska to finish high school. Though Edna has been away for some time, she still has many friends on the campus.

The carpenter boys have been very busy the past week in turning out towel cabinets. The splendid workmanship on these cabinets reflects credit upon the carpenter boys, the shop, and their instructor, Mr. Mason.

Anna Peratrovich and Coquille Thompson handled Capt. Stacy's freshmen classes during his absence on Thursday. Margaret Maupin and Royal Holst looked after the juniors, Reggie DePoe and Harriett Hill presided over the seniors.

Dr. Collard paid an official visit recently to the Siletz Agency, which is under the jurisdiction of the Salem Indian School. Of the thirty-five school children examined, only one case of trachoma was found, and this will be treated at our hospital.

Mr. Hodges, county Y secretary, was a visitor at the Climbers Club last Wednesday. He brought the boys copies of the "Y" news sheet, "The Pioneer Trail," and invited them to the county pioneer "pow-wow" in Salem on Saturday afternoon.

The Y. W. and Y. M. held their annual joint vesper service on Sunday evening. The large attendance showed the interest of the students in this meeting. A discussion of topics appropriate to the season, together with special music, made a varied and interesting program.

The Nonpareil Literary Society held their regular meeting in the auditorium on Friday evening. After a short business meeting an excellent program was rendered by the new members. A brief but instructive talk was given by Mrs. Edsell, who was pleased with the work of the society.

A recent visitor to the Y. M. C. A. meeting was Mr. Percy Bell of O. A. C. Mr. Bell is state president of Student Volunteers and a track letter man of O. A. C. He made a most impressive talk to the boys along the line of character, living and service. Mr. Rettie and Mr. Davies of Williamette U. were visitors at the same meeting.

Miss Virginia Brickell made a special trip home this week-end to be present at the Winona party. Other "out of town" guests were Josephine Summers and Josephine Nelson and Eva O'Brien. The gymnasium was beautifully decorated in pink and white, and the party was a splendid success. Three long "rahs" for the Winonas!

The Protestant Student Church is the recipient of a communion service. A group of people from the Salem Presbyterian Church who are interested in Chemawa made possible the gift. Those contributing to it were: Mr. J. H. Albert, Mr. C. P. Bishop, Dr. S. A. Bowman, Mr. Paul Wallace, Mr. Harold Eakin, Mr. H. J. Clements and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Park.

The chapel exercises last Sunday evening were in charge of the Junior class girls and arrangements had been made for Mr. Paulus of Salem to give a lantern slide demonstration of colored photography. A brief musical program was given in the beginning of the exercises. Margaret Maupin acted as chairwoman, and with credit, too. The orchestra played the "Melody of Love" by Engelmann, and the girls of the Junior class sang "The Italian Hymn" by Roma. About 200 views were put on the screen by Mr. Paulus, who explained both the pictures and the art of producing them as he proceeded. It was truly a most entertaining and interesting treat for all present. Mr. Paulus has the thanks of all Chemawa for the enjoyable and profitable evening which his art has given us.
