Chemawa Defeats Willamette's Super-Varsity

Captain Fleury's sensational 70-yard run to a touchdown in the early part of the third quarter paved the way to a 13 to 0 victory over Willamette University's Super-Varsity here last Saturday afternoon. Throughout the first half the game was just about as even as one could be, with Chemawa a little stronger on the offense and a like advantage in Willamette's favor in the forward passing attack. There was much seeing-sawing back and forth in the center of the field until the end of the half.

Captain Fleury started a victory march with his long run. Soon after Fleury's dash across the chalk line Lawrence Pratt drove through the line and eluded the secondary tacklers and past the safety for a pretty 45-yard run and our second touchdown. Fleury converted the goal kick for an extra point. Both of these boys were consistent in their gains around the ends, as was our fullback, Peter Cimino, who netted several good gains by his line plunges.

Joe and Roy Peratrovich by their fine work at the guard positions inspired their green proteges in the line to play like veterans.

Percy Roush, center, from Pierre, South Dakota, and Jake Atkins, veteran quarterback, did not start the game, but their entrance into it had a telling effect. However, they have able understudies in Cecil Stagner and Lee Wilson. Ernest Brunoe, a new tackle, played such a good defensive game that he was almost outstanding. His teammate at right tackle was also a demon on defense but needs to improve his work on offense if his side of the line is to have its full power this season. Eldred George and George Meachem, ends, playing their second varsity game, looked more promising than ever.

Many of our boys got a chance to work out against Willamette and toward the end of the game Bill Johnson and Robert Archambeau, halfbacks, George Weeks, Edward Walker and Walter Howard, linemen, entered the game.

Friday the team plays Columbia University at Portland. Columbia will be set for us and we're sure of a terrific struggle but victory will erase a 12-to-12 tie of two years ago and a 7-to-6 defeat at their hands last year. That ought to make the boys fight. "Third time is a charm" and this year we intend to win. Fleury may be unable to start in this game because of a foot injury received in the Willamette game.

This week the Seniors and Sophomores will play. The officials: Roy Peratrovich, referee; George Meachem, umpire; Leander Wilson, headlinesmen.

Following is our football schedule:

Oct. 14, Columbia University at Portland
Oct. 21, O. A. C. Freshmen at Corvallis
Oct. 29, Corvallis High School at Chemawa
Nov. 5, Linfield College at Chemawa

Nov. 11, Bachelors' Athletic Club at Portland
Nov. 18, Albany College at Albany
Nov. 24, Tentative

Who will win the class football cup this year?

McBride Hall is getting its share of the pupils. It now has 157 girls and more are registering.

Raymond Haldane and Reginad DePoe are on the football squad of "Old Willamette" this year. Both are husky lads.

Mr. Wainanit of Warm Springs, Ore., visited his daughter, Goldie, last week. Goldie is one of our 8th grade girls.

The death of Ruth Courville's mother called Ruth and Clifford home last Wednesday. She lived in Polson, Montana. Our sympathies are extended.

Florence La Course, Ruth Eagle and Susie Hart are three of the many students to leave for their homes. Susie and Ruth live in No. Dak., while Florence is a native of Oregon.

According to our "recollection," 435 years ago was the beginning of things here in America. It is the day that Christopher Columbus made a landing. Really, this is "Columbus Day."

Teams are afield early and late at Chemawa, weather permitting, doing late fall plowing. As soon as one crop is harvested it behooves mankind to make certain of a harvest when the next year arrives.

The first meeting of the Winona Literary Society was held Sept. 30. The evening was spent in transacting old and new business. The election of new officers will be held at the next regular meeting. Mr. Klein is advisor to the Winonas this year.

Raymond Haldane, Clifford McLeod, Reggie and Charles DePoe, Willamette Blakeslee and Anna Peratrovich, all of the class of '27, are attending Willamette University. Harriett Hill of the same class is attending Business College in Salem.

The Reliance Society held their first meeting of the year on Sept. 20, and elected the following officers: President, Royal Holst; vice-president, Wm. Markish-tum; secretary, Raymond Jones; treasurer, Jacob Atkins; cheer leader, Reno Booth; sergeant-at-arms, Clifford Meachem.

Last Wednesday during assembly period, Mr. Stacey gave an interesting account on the life and writings of the greatest Indian poet, Alexander Lawrence Posey. Our girls quartet, Evelyn Green, Matilda Turcotte, Alice Mae Clark and Pearl Buckles, sang an Indian song, "Wium."

The student teachers are all glad to have Dorothea Parker back with them again. The normal force has increased over last year's quota. There are four old members; Dorothea Parker, Eva Bean, Josephine Redstone and Alfreda Kipp. The new members are: Agnes Peratrovich, Evelyn Roberts, Wilma Kipp, Cleo Plasteur, Helen Peratrovich, Margaret Sears, Susie Grounds and Sarah Reddoor. Sarah Reddoor is a graduate from Santie, Nebraska, and is finishing her normal course here at Chemawa. There are eighty-three students in the primary department.
