Santa Claus will soon be here.

Mr. Bent went to Portland on business Thursday.

Miss Grace Johnson decorated the stage beautifully for the Sunday services.

Chemawa sympathizes with Mrs. Kirk over the death of her father, Mr. E. L. Briggs of Salem.

The Junior girls are preparing a Christmas box for the children of the Supai Day school, in Arizona.

Mr. Fisher, Miss Earlougher and Mrs. Leavenworth gave interesting talks at a recent teachers' meeting.

Captain Stacy has recently been elected president of the Officers' Club, U. S. R., of Salem and Marion County.

Spyna Howard, of the Senior class, left Saturday for her home in Poplar, Montana, on account of the illness of her father.

John Wishart is again in school after a fall while working on the electric lines. Leonard Paul also fell at the same time and will be out in a few days.

Mr. Elwood Towner attended chapel exercises last Sunday evening. Mr. Towner is a Chemawa boy, a Willamette graduate and at present is in a law office in Portland.

Mr. Carroll and Mr. Frost played golf in town on Saturday. Mr. Sanders is proving quite a champion at the game. He went the course twice in 48. Mr. Carroll made it once in 49.

Miss Spencer is a little the worse for a fall in town last Saturday. She received medical attention immediately in town and we are glad indeed that it never stopped her "going."

Miss Baldwin provided two reels of movies for the Wednesday assemblies last week. One was on Atlantic City and the other was on Hawaii. They were interesting and instructive. Thanks to you, Miss Baldwin, we enjoyed them.

Miss Foster and Mrs. DePoe are busy with the Christmas entertainment. Miss Foster gave the Christmas entertainment last year and it was excellent, and from the previous program efforts of the above-named we are assured a real treat in the coming event.

During chapel last Sunday evening Supt. Lipps gave a talk of great interest and good sense. He touched upon a topic which has been close to our American hearts for a long time—the matter of making the study of English on the part of our upper grades practical. We would like to have the classmen prove to The American readers that they can handle the "King's English" as well as anybody. This is a fine idea—all it needs is working. In addition to the address of Supt. Lipps, Raymond Haldane, one of our favorite singers, sang a number which pleased everybody. The choir and orchestra contributed pleasing numbers.

Sharp eyes can see many beautiful things in the making in the shops. Tinkering and hammering out of work hours are the rule rather than the exception these days. A prophet would say most of these things would end up in McBride hall about Christmas time.

Dr. J. B. Collard was called to Spokane rather unexpectedly last week but will return to Chemawa soon and finish the tonsil and eye cases. By his cheerful and helpful services Dr. Collard has won the hearts of the Chemawa people and we are always glad at his arrival and sorry at his departure.

Mr. J. N. Stencil of Virginia, and directly from Washington, D. C., comes to Chemawa as instructor in mechanical drawing and shop mathematics. This is a new position for Chemawa and one that will be a great help to the boys in getting on a higher plane of efficiency in all lines of industrial work.

Mrs. L. F. Brickell has recently been appointed outing matron. This is a new position in connection with the school. Most of the girls under her supervision will be employed in Portland. This of course will take Mrs. Brickell from the campus much of the time. Chemawa rejoices at the position, both for Mrs. Brickell and the girls.

Miss Wright, our nurse, says: Mrs. Carroll is helping to while away a few of the weary hours of the convalescent patients in the Hospital by teaching them to make pretty scrap books. Some of the big boys are keeping one of the permanent patients supplied with oranges. Father Gall calls every afternoon, rain or shine, and tells stories to the children. These services bring much happiness to the children, and are greatly appreciated by the nurses who hear the plea day after day for something to read, or do, or play with. But I am sure the greatest satisfaction comes to the one who helps brighten the day for the sick boy or girl. A sure cure for unhappiness or loneliness is to make some one else happy.
