ATHLETIC NOTES

Just recently our athletes were banqueted at the domestic science in a most delightful way. There was close to one hundred boys, girls and employees present to enjoy the very fine dinner prepared by the girls of the junior class, and several good talks given during the banquet hour. Our young folks really had a right to feel honored.

At the proper time Mr. Bent, the toastmaster, called upon Captain Solomon Fleury, who made a very fine speech on "Team Spirit."

If Captain-elect Roy Peratrovich will lead his team as well as he makes after dinner speeches it is certain our boys will not be wanting in leadership, for Roy's talk on "Next Year's Team" was, without question, good.

Zelma Johnson followed with a few remarks on "The Girl Athlete." Zelma drew into the picture such feminine leaders in athletics as Suzanne Lenglen and Helen Wills and cited the need of more opportunities for Chemawa girls to take up athletics.

"The Coordination of Athletics and Education" was the subject of a really fine talk made by Mr. Carroll, our principal. Mr. Carroll mentioned that it would stimulate interest in athletics here if we were admitted into the high school association.

"What I Have Heard and Seen" was the funny paper of the evening and was given by Allan Shepard. Allan has heard and seen a lot and he cleverly told the happening of many funny incidents that had an athletic connection in some way or other.

Supt. Lipps' speech on "The Indian as an Athlete" was both helpful and interesting. He told of the accomplishments of some of the Indian teams and just what motive inspired competition against the biggest and best teams in the country. He also made some interesting remarks on standardizing our athletics and pointed out that our next step was to enter the high school association, play with those teams among whom we rightfully belong and leave the college and club teams alone, for ours are only high school teams at best and to refer to them as the "varsity" is all wrong. His was a most interesting talk in every way.

With fitting remarks of thanks and praise Mr. Bent expressed the gratitude and appreciation of all present to the domestic science force for a delightful evening which came to a close all too soon. The banquet ended with the school song.

Following are those who will receive certificates and letters this spring at "Jolly-Up" time:

Football: George Meachem, Peter Rassmussen, Roy Peratrovich, captain-elect, Percy Roush, Cecil Stagner, Joe Peratrovich, Ernest Brunoe, Eldred George, Jacob Atkins, Solomon Fleury, captain, Peter Cemino, Lawrence Pratt, William Johnson, Clifford Meachem, Joe Webster and Francis Ross.

Basketball: Peter Rassmussen, captain, Eldred George, Jesse Prettyman, Roy Peratrovich, James Spencer, George Meachem, Joe Peratrovich and Clifford Meachem.

Basketball: Clarinda Quenel, Alma Morigeau, Neva Clairmont, Martha Packineau, Margaret Maupin, Pauline Pratt, captain, Susie Grounds and Gladys Ladderoute.

Wrestling: William Johnson, captain, Charles Morgan, George Nicholson, Dan Collins, Moses George, Charles Fagerstrom, Thomas Anayah, Karl Muller, Clifford Meachem and Aaron Isaacs.

Last Friday evening six of our wrestlers figured prominently in the wrestling tournament at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club in Portland. Four of the six men pitted against our boys are to represent the United States in the Olympic games this summer and their coach predicts two of them will return world champions. Though our boys lost all but one match, they returned with one victory and a silver loving cup which speaks highly of their work. Against such seasoned grapplers our boys did well. Tom Anayah, George Nicholson and Dan Collins lost only by decisions; Clifford Meachem and Bill Johnson lost by falls; Charles Fagerstrom won by a decision and brought home the cup.

LOCAL

Chemawa girls enjoyed an unusual treat last Wednesday evening in a visit from Miss Ethel Cutler, Secretary of Religious Education for the National Y. W. C. A. in New York City. More than 200 girls greeted her in the auditorium and listened with much interest to her talk. Miss Cutler has spent some time in Palestine and the Sinai Peninsula, and she described in detail her trip across the desert on a camel, and her unique opportunity to study, at first hand, some of the ancient Hebrew manuscripts of the Bible which are in the possession of a Greek Orthodox monastery on Mt. Sinai. Accompanying Miss Cutler to Chemawa were Miss Baker, Secretary of the Salem Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. Eric Butler, president of the Salem Association, Mrs. W. E. Kirk of Salem, and Miss Ensgar, Field Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Following the meetings in the auditorium Miss Eakin and Miss Judd entertained with a dinner party in honor of these visitors.
