This is May Day. Who is Queen?

Miss Josephine Sommers of Portland was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mason.

The good-conduct companies for the past week were: For the girls, Co. "B," Helen Donnelly, captain. For the boys, Co. "D," Clifford Meachem, captain.

Mr. E. R. Mason, our instructor in carpentry has just received a letter from Edward Walker, one of his apprentices who left Chemawa a year ago. Edward is in or near Nome, Alaska, and is getting along nicely.

Saturday, May 3, the senior class will present "Captain Swagger," a romantic movie production featuring Rod LaRocque. There will also be a news reel and a comedy. This will be another "Annual" benefit and your patronage is urgently requested by the seniors.

The "pay-as-you-enter" party last Saturday evening was most enthusiastically received by almost our entire student body and the gym was filled to overflowing with pleasure-loving young people. At all times tempting refreshments were to be had by those so inclined. The music was good and—the party was a great success, financially and otherwise.

Chemawa friends are in receipt of news from Mr. Raymond Ready, in certain circles know by the high-sounding title of Chief Kicks-a-Hole-in-the-Sky. At the time he wrote Raymond was kicking a hole in the sky at Seward, Alaska, but he intimated that the kicking was not so good and he intended to do some kicking in Oregon at the first possible opportunity.

On April 25th Archbishop Edward D. Howard of Portland visited Chemawa for the purpose of giving confirmation to a class of 37 Catholic children. Father Hughes of Portland accompanied Archbishop Howard, and Father Thomas and Father Basil, members of the Mount Angel College faculty, assisted with the confirmation services. At noon, Martha Packineau and Spyna Howard, President and Secretary, respectively, of the Little Flower Society, served a lovely dinner at the Wigwam for the visitors, together with Superintendent and Mrs. Lipps, Mr. and Mrs. James, Miss Roddy and the local missionary, Father Gall. Music was furnished during the dinner by Chemawa's String Quartet, which was greatly appreciated and praised by all.

At chapel last Sunday evening Supt. Lipps told an "Uncle Remus" story for edification of the younger students, the older ones, too, for that matter, and even the employees. He held the interest of all and the conclusion is that in this particular line of talk, as well as in other lines, he is absolutely at home. It was a treat for all. At one point in his talk he spoke particularly of the Hopi Indians, of their high sense of personal honor, and their many commendable qualities, and appealed to our students to emulate their forefathers in this respect. Mr. Lipps also drew attention to the fact that school for the year is nearing a close and said that he hoped that there would be few students who would look back over the year's work with regrets. In every way a fine talk. In addition to the address Pat Wilke contributed a vocal solo and the orchestra and choir each rendered a pleasing number.

HON. J. HENRY SCATTERGOOD

Recommended for Assistant Commissioner of Indian Affairs

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington yesterday announced that J. Henry Scattergood of Philadelphia "has been recommended to President Hoover by Secretary Wilbur for Assistant Commissioner of Indian Affairs."

From Who's Who we learn that Mr. Scattergood was born in Philadelphia January 26, 1877; that he graduated from Haverford College in 1896 and from Harvard university in 1897; that he has held responsible positions with numerous business organizations and companies; that he is treasurer of Haverford College, Bryn Mawr College, also of Pennsylvania Working Home for Blind Men, and is a trustee of Hampton Institute. He was First Chief of Friends Reconstruction Unit in France and member of Original Red Cross Committee to France. He is a member of Friends Service Committee, of the Historical Society of Pa., and of the Academy of Natural Science of Pa.

With these good Friends—Commissioner Rhoads and Assistant Commissioner Scattergood—at the head of the Indian Bureau, it appears that a new day is dawning for the Indian Service. As the editor of the Oregon Journal puts it—"It should be a happy appointment. A beautiful example was set this country by a great Quaker in dealing with the Indians."

It will be remembered by many old employees in the Service that it was the Quakers or "Friends" who so generously came to the aid of General Pratt when he undertook his great experiment at Carlisle. It was a Quaker, Miss Ely, who organized and for many years supervised the Carlisle "Outing System" which did so much to demonstrate the truth of General Pratt's famous slogan—"To Civilize the Indian, get him into Civilization; to keep him civilized, let him stay."

We welcome these good Friends into our Service and pledge to them our hearty support, cooperation and loyalty.
