

CHEMAWA RUBS ASTORIA IN MUD, 13 TO 0

Tired of defeat and inspired by a loyal student body our football team triumphed over Astoria high at Astoria last Saturday afternoon 13 to 0. Wallace Hosie and Warren Wilder, halfbacks, and Roy Meachem, fullback, were the boys who carried the ball down the field to register our points, all of which were made in the first half. Deprived of a touchdown in the first minutes of the game by a matter of inches, Dowd Franklin, quarterback, who, by the way, did a fine job of directing the attack, started his warriors goalward once more on a series of uninterrupted first-downs and Wallace Hosie skirted the end for the last five yards and a touchdown. Roy Meachem, diminutive in size but mammoth in deed, drove over the line for the extra point. Our second touchdown was made in identically the same manner as the first. This time we lost the extra point when our backfield was in motion.

Though the game was played under a clear blue sky it was also played in pure gumbo mud ankle deep and the ankle deep part of it is no mere expression but the honest-to-goodness truth. All of which forbade very little of anything except straight football.

Offensively and defensively our line out-scraped that of the Fishermen and that is saying considerable. Not for a single moment did Astoria's forwards consider themselves defeated, but a determined Chemawa line opened holes for our backs to go driving through against their stubborn defense. On the defense those same boys showed the Fishermen some clean, hard tackling, and seldom did they let their opponents pass the line of scrimmage. Lonnie Weeks, center; Peter Levay and Howard Churchill, guards; Albert Miller and Leonard Vivette, ends; deserve much credit for the good showing of our line but the lions' share must go to "Biff" Jones and George Thompson, tackles. Both extended themselves over such a wide area to make tackles or open up holes that they stood out with Meachem and Hosie as our real stars of the game. Two full teams made the trip and all but two men got their suits terribly muddy.

The battle for the class championship still goes on. Some of the boys are gaining more power and those nothing-to-nothing scores are no more. Last week the eighth graders piled up a 32 to 0 score against the sixth, and the sophomores humbled the seniors by the biggest score of the upper grades this season, 19 to 0. This week the sophomores and juniors meet in probably the toughest class game this season. Neither team has as yet tasted defeat. The seventh will meet the fifth graders.

Friday Pacific University's Baby Badgers come here. It will mean a lot to the morale of our team if it takes this game, and what an effort they will make to do it! Without a doubt this should be the most spectacular game played here this season. Eldon Jenne, the Badger coach, is a stickler for tripple and double passes and lots of deception and our boys take no little delight in tricking their opponents also. So Saturday's game will be a battle of wits as well as might and brawn. Don't miss it. It is not too late to get your season tickets at a profit.

LOCAL

"Bob" Boardman, physical director of the Salem Y. M. C. A., was guest speaker at the Chemawa "Y" on Sunday evening. About forty-five boys were present to enjoy the interesting story told by Mr. Boardman, which ended with the following worthwhile maxim: "Learn a trade, know it well, co-operate with your fellowmen."

An event of more than ordinary interest to our students was the election last week of student-body officers. A ballot had been printed and in every respect the election proceedings were in keeping with the importance of the occasion. Dowd Franklin was chosen as president. In the election of vice-president there was a very close race; 151 votes were cast for Christine Muller, 149 for Rosalia Grounds, and 147 for Wallace Hosie. The office of secretary went to Peter McClusky. The office of sergeant-at-arms for girls went to Margaret Hoptowit, while Lawrence Ohles was elected to the same office for the boys. Mr. Ryan spoke highly of the election and the seriousness of those who balloted.
