Miss Vina Smith, who spent the holidays at Chemawa, has returned to her studies at the Bellingham (Wash.) Normal School.

Mr. Robt. H. Knox of Gresham, Oregon, paid Chemawa a visit during the recent holidays. He is a former Indian Service employe now retired.

Shoemakers repaired 425 pairs of shoes during the month of November. When you consider that two shoes make a pair, this was quite a goodly number of "kickers."

Word has been received of the death of Richard O'Brien of tuberculosis at the sanatorium at Galen, Montana, on Dec. 24. He graduated at Chemawa three or four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sandberg and daughter of Reedsport, Oregon, passed the holidays as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Larsen at Chemawa. They returned home last Friday.

Miss Edna Groves, Supervisor of Home Economics in the Indian Service, arrived at Chemawa last week in an official capacity. The long service of Miss Groves has given her a large list of friends at Chemawa and she is always a most welcome visitor.

One of the delightful events of our holidays was a luncheon served by Mrs. Ryan to a group of friends who gathered at her home on the afternoon of December 28th. In every respect it proved a memorable affair—dainty and with a "homey" atmosphere.

The Y. W. had their regular meeting last Sunday. There was no special program so there were many favorite hymns sung. A letter was received from Miss Ecpert, who is National Secretary of the Interior Department. She had written of her trip in Europe. There were also greeting cards sent from old Y. W. members whom we all enjoyed hearing from.

We are in receipt of a card from Mr. G. Wilder Fort, a Chemawa employe but now in Raleigh, N. Carolina. Mr. Fort especially desires that we extend his Christmas greeting to Supt. and Mrs. Lipps and all employes here with whom he is acquainted. He wishes joy and good health to all and expressed the wish that he were here in the fold for the Yuletide season.

Mrs. Brickell passed the last week-end in Portland. Joe White was a vocal soloist at chapel last Sunday evening.

Miss Earlougher spent her Christmas in San Francisco, Calif.

Mr. Kirk made a trip to Portland Monday on government business.

Miss Peters passed the recent holidays with friends near Tacoma, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Larsen and daughter, Miss Vivian, and Mr. Silas Moon passed New Years with friends at the Siletz Agency.

After having passed the holidays with his parents at Neah Bay, Wash., Charles DePoe is back again to resume his studies at Willamette University.

Coquelle Thompson returned to his studies at O. S. A., Corvallis, on Monday after having passed the holidays here. He is now a senior at the college.

Mr. Burton Crary, of Salem, was the principal speaker at our local Y. M. meeting last Sunday evening and brought our young men many good and new thoughts.

It should not be necessary to admonish our students to give heed to the words of advice uttered by Supt. Lipps during chapel last Sunday evening. Remember, what he said was not idle talk.

The students enjoyed a good movie last Saturday evening—"The Silent Enemy." This is truly a remarkable production—no white characters in it and it was two years in the making in the wilds of Canada.

Mrs. Hattie Eaton, formerly head clerk here and for many years in the service, gave joy to her old Chemawa friends by passing the week-end here while en-route from Idaho to Los Angeles where she will pass the winter.

Mrs. Henrietta K. Burton of our field service, and in co-operation with the extension service of O. S. C., spent a day at Chemawa last week conferring with Supt. Lipps on matters of importance to this district. She is both likeable and able and has no illusions regarding her work.
