

GRADUATING EXERCISES

him for his wonderful address. Mrs. Montana Olson of Browning, Montana, was present and appeared as a vocalist on our program, giving pleasure to all with her artistry. Other high lights of the evening was the reading by Warren Wilder of a letter addressed to the class by Supt. Lipps, now of Sacramento (California) Indian Agency, and a telegram sent to the class by Mr. H. A. Kunkel, our former bandmaster who is now in the service at the Phoenix school, Arizona. Both the letter and the telegram were loudly applauded by the audience. Lack of space forbids further details of the exercises. Aside from the above notes on the program it was as follows:

LOCAL

Mr. Silas Moon was a recent visitor at the school.

The thermometer registered 91 in this section last Friday. Form your own conclusions!

Mr. Carl W. Turner has gone to Missouri, his old home, to visit and attend summer school.

Our people enjoyed a movie last Friday evening. The title of the picture was "The Flying Fool."

Quite a number of our people are frequenting Spong's Landing on the banks of the Willamette river on warm evenings, bathing being the great attraction.

The Sunday edition of The Statesman carried the picture of Mr. Melovidoff and a fine lengthy write-up of his travels and musical experiences.

William and Eustice Markishtum arrived here last Sunday from their home in Neah Bay, Wash. They came down to take their sister, Eleanor, and brother, Luke, home for the summer vacation.

The academic teachers enjoyed their annual picnic at Silverton Park on Thursday afternoon of last week. All teachers were given an invitation. Mrs. Lipps and Dr. Sisco accompanied the party as specially invited guests. A fine basket luncheon came in just right at the psychological moment.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sandberg came up from Reedsport, Oregon, to attend our closing exercises and see Fred Jr. receive his diploma. Next year they will again be here, this time to see Everett graduate.

Recently there was a joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. organizations—the last meeting of this kind for the year. The seniors had charge of the program—Frank Johnson presiding. Joe White sang a solo and the boys of the quartet contributed a couple of vocal numbers.
