

HOME ECONOMICS

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson gave a banquet on Dec. 22nd honoring Coach Lavelle and his football boys. This was given as a reward for the winning of the game between Chemawa and Salem on Thanksgiving. The serving of the dinner was done by Miss Strauch and her senior home economics class. Besides the football boys there were present Supt. and Mrs. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Lavelle, and Mr. and Mrs. Henderson.

BOY SCOUTS

Two Troops of Boy Scouts visited Troop 12 in Salem on Dec. 14th and on Dec. 16th. The same two Troops went to the State house for the Court of Honor where 100 boys passed their Scout test.

Our Troops, 7 and 8, gave a talkie show on Dec. 28th, trying to raise funds to carry on their work. We appreciate the kind support all the employees gave us. Respectfully yours, The Boy Scouts.

BEAUTY PARLOR

The books have come for the beauty parlor. Regular lessons will start the first of the new year. The girls taking the course are very much interested in their work under the capable instruction of Miss Funk. The new permanent waving machine has kept Miss Funk busy during her spare time.

MISCELLANEA

The Girls' Dramatic Club at their last meeting had a business discussion on raising money for plays and stage make-ups. After the business discussion a group of girls gave a skit, which proved to be of interest both because of its originality and the way it was presented.

The blacksmith department recently received its year's supply of iron and coal, which was very much needed. From now on the first-year boys will not be handicapped in any way. During Christmas vacation Frank Dumont accepted a job of overhauling the motor of a tractor in the State of Washington.

During this holiday season, and for lack of time we painters were unable to do outside work; we did a little window fixing, varnishing and on painting several small articles. The carpenters have just brought in a new bureau, which Howard Churchill is giving an ivory finish, while some of the boys have been matching stain on the chairs which have just been brought in. Starting Monday morning the painters will be kept at the practice house.

Happy New Year everybody! This is station MCN broadcasting! . . . A large cabinet model, Philco radio was presented to McNary Hall on Christmas eve. This is a gift that we all appreciate. Thanks a lot . . . Several of the boys from our hall spent the holidays at their homes . . .

Herman LaCourse took the part of Santa Claus in the Christmas program which was held in the reading room on Christmas eve. You looked real, Herman.

The Winona Hall girls on Christmas Eve came down stairs in a procession singing "Silent Night, Holy Night." All was dark except for the girls that were holding lighted candles. After this a few Christmas songs and readings were given. Then Santa and his helpers distributed the Christmas gifts. The girls can all say that Santa didn't forget them this year.

The auto shop boys have completed the remodeling of a Chandler car as an extra "pick up" truck. They rebuilt a sedan body, making a truck cab of it, extended the frame of the car 20 inches and refitted all brakes, gas line and other connections to fit the new wheel-base length.

Due to the holidays only necessary routine work was carried on by the engineers. . . The electricians are rapidly pushing to completion the installation of the new telephones. The entire system should be in operation by January 8th.

The boys in the paint shop, under the direction of Mr. Sanders, have been painting some of the bedrooms, pantries and halls in the practice house. We are very proud of the fine workmanship shown in this job and the girls are now ready for the furnishing of the bedrooms, the curtaining of the windows, etc. The first group of girls will move in about the 10th of January.

SPELLING CONTEST

An oral spelling contest, in which picked representatives of the grade and high school classes participated, was held in the school auditorium on Saturday evening, Dec. 26. The results, which were in the highest degree creditable to both teachers and students: Individual winners, Annie Stevens, Jacob Jackson, Florence Grenier, Walter LePlante, Josephine Hughes, Donald Brown.
