The Showalters bid defiance to depression by riding around in a new De Sota sedan.

Mrs. S. H. Gilliam and Ann, who have been visiting relatives in the east, returned Sunday, Jan. 8.

We are in receipt of a subscription from John C. Cadotte of Wakpala, S. D., a student of a few years ago, who wishes to be remembered to his friends.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Turney had as guests Mr. Mordaunt Goodenough and Miss Freda Stjerna. Both guests are prominent in musical circles in Portland.

George Meachem and Joy Yellowtail, Chemawa's only representatives at Bacone college, Bacone, Okla., have a meeting once every week at the school library for the purpose of reading the AMERICAN. They say it is just like getting a letter from home.

Miss Ella Swink, our new station agent from Clackamas, will probably be permanently stationed here. She has been here since Jan. 1. Mr. Francisco will be transferred to some other part of the county or state some time in the near future.

A group of Chemawa people consisting of Miss White, Miss Fout, Miss Richardson, Miss Clark, Mr. Bent, Lonnie Weeks and Pete Paquette went on a pleasure trip to Mt. Hood on Sunday, Jan. 8. They report having a jolly time indulging in the winter sports of tobogganing and skiing.

At his own request Dr. Henry N. Sisco is being transferred to the Cheyenne and Arapaho agency at Concho, Okla. Through constant and critical surveys of the campus in search of unsanitary conditions, clinics, propaganda and conscientious care of the sick and ailing he has improved the health situation here a great deal. He will be replaced by Dr. W. L. Lockman of the Yakima Indian agency of Washington.

ORGANIZATIONS

There are twenty four boys in Troop 8. We need eight more to have a complete troop.

On Monday night the Latonah campfire group went for a hike. The Pootan campfire girls are working on beaded head bands.

The Little Flower society has elected the following new officers: Marie Farron, vice-president; Dorothy Henderson, song leader; Lenora Harris, sergeant-at-arms.

On Monday, Jan. 9, Miss Fout took the Junior Red Cross girls for a hike. They went towards Hazel Green and after a hike of about two hours duration returned, to have dinner at the doctor's cottage.

The junior high Girl Reserves held their first meeting of the year and elected new officers. The following were elected: President, Adrona Aguilar; vice-president, Elizabeth George; secretary, Alice Bear Tusk; treasurer, Rose Bellcourt; reporter, Bessie David.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting on Sunday Jan. 8, was an introduction to what the girls expect to have for the rest of the year. The girls are planning to have outside speakers to give them talks on the different vocations that are open to girls. The girls seem to be interested in this line so we are planning on interesting meetings for the rest of the year.

Now that the holidays are over everyone is back to work in the girl scouts. The tenderfeet of troop 1 who passed their tests are: Alma Hatch, Elizabeth Arquette, Catherine Sherman and Juanita Juneau. Our new lieutenant, Priscilla Hayashi, is now taking charge. A song entitled "Be Prepared" was composed by Priscilla Hayashi and Lillian Billy. Mrs. Middleton received a letter from Mrs. Myrtle Wiggins (French) of Bolivar, Tennessee, who organized troop one.

At the next Court of Honor, William Blakeslee is going up for Second Class; George Cummings, John Blacketer, Thomas Plouffe, Ora Wiggins and Franklin Juneau are going up for First Class; and Ray Baldy and Simeon Bean are going up for Star reward. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy so the boys have organized a basketball team. They are to play other scouts in the towns. George Cummings was elected chairman of this department.

SENIORS

Although rather behind in our reports we wish to say that we all had a grand time at our first party which was given on Thursday, during Christmas week. Thanks to Miss White, Alice Ladderoute, Ann White and Alice Jones for the excellent refreshments!

Our class is all back together again and down to hard work as the end of the second quarter is drawing near. We have been rushed with all kinds of tests this last week which surely made some of us think a bit.

In the basketball games played Saturday night the senior girls won over the sophomores scoring three points ahead. The boys however didn't do so well and lost to the juniors with a score of 28 to 34.

The class now rates 100 per cent in season tickets, much to the delight of all its members.
