

CHEMAWA AMERICAN

Printed at Chemawa, Oregon, and Devoted to the Interests of Indian Education

VOL. XXXIV

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 29, 1933

NO. 15

SUPT. RYAN ADDRESSES ROTARIANS

James T. Ryan, Supt.

At the Salem Rotary club meeting of March 15 Supt. Ryan gave a brief talk regarding the work of the school. He stressed the necessity of Salem business men cooperating with Chemawa in securing employment for our vocational graduates. He stated that the future of the school depended on the ability of the school authorities to place the students in occupations so they would not have to return to reservations where opportunities were meagre.

The girls' sextet, composed of Marie LaFrance, Dora LaFrance, Aletta Goodbird, Alice Bachman, Melba Arnoux and Alice Slater, presented a pleasing musical program.

OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE

The annual older boys' conference of the Y. M. C. A. of Marion and Polk counties was held in Salem on March 24 and 25. The Chemawa delegates were Louis Pitt, George Lucei and Wesley Larsen. At a banquet on the evening of the 24, at which the conference was formally begun, speeches were given by speakers of each locality. Wesley Larsen was speaker for Chemawa. He was also secretary of the conference. The main objective of the conference was to improve the individual by self-conducted habit improvement. Such valuable constructive measures were expounded that all those attending the conference must have benefited immensely.

HONOR STUDENTS FOR THIRD QUARTER

HIGH HONOR ROLL

Twelfth Grade: Frances Jones, Oma Woodcock, Lena Louie, Wesley Larsen, Leo Cottonoir.

Eleventh Grade: LaVerne Ulmer, David Berger.

Tenth Grade: Delphine Swann.

Eighth Grade: Ora Bell Greely, Ray Baldy, Carl Lawrence, Lawrence Smith, Vernon Jackson, Lovey Jackson.

HONOR ROLL

Twelfth Grade: Howard Abbot, Leroy Grenier, Fred Motschman, Alice Jones, Luella Moore, Lillian Billy, Lucy Billy.

Eleventh Grade: Earl Stanhope, Elmer Hootchew,

Dorothy Parker, Cecille Madsen, Nancy Jordan, Adam Williams, Violet Johnson, Irene Thomas, Philip Broncheau.

Tenth Grade: Laura Morigeau, Regina Sheldon, Clara Charles, Catherine Smith, Theresa Decelles, James Rosario, Harry Wilder, Woodrow Ball, Lester Jefferson, Leslie Rieckie, Albert Beauvais, Whitney Comeau, Ben Palmer.

Ninth Grade: Joy Whitelaw, Jeanette Huntley, Elsie Smith, Elizabeth Polotkin, Lorena Morigeau, Louise Levay, Rachel French, Wallace Zundle, William Majhor, Peter Berger, Peter Tonasket, Leo Teehee, Quinten Markishtum.

Eighth Grade: Bernice Frye, Wilma Mesplie, Aradona Aguilar, Edith Switzler, Ruth Yellowrobe, Hugh Edmo, Victor Smith, David James, Percy James, Henry Shippentower, George Magee.

Seventh Grade: Lincoln Grenier, James Fisher, Eddie Casey, Marshall Kittson, Neally Underwood, Rose Bellecourt, Aloysious Doore, Marseilles St. Martin, Marilouise Masten, May Lawson, Anna Plaster, Virginia Pete.

Sixth Grade: Eleanor Tom, Emma Swann, Dorothy Southern, Cecille Joe, Mabel Finley, Rose Turner.

"THE GREEN STRING"

The senior play, "The Green String," a mystery play in three acts, proved to be a great success from every standpoint. A well-coached and gifted cast of young actors kept the audience interested and mystified throughout the evening. Although we, with the country detective (ably portrayed by Leroy Grenier), thought that now and then "we were beginning to get somewhere" in unraveling the mystery, the denouement was entirely a surprise to the audience—and to the detective. Every character was well depicted. The seniors and Miss White, who directed the play, have every reason to feel proud of their efforts. The house was packed with Chemawa people and many citizens from Salem. Financially the outcome was also very gratifying.

Musical numbers between acts were furnished by the boys' dance band and several other musical groups.

The cast of characters follows:

Josiah Harshman, ill-tempered, wealthy --- Howard Churchill
Gilbert Barnes, Josiah's nephew Vincent Pratt
Otis Wendell, self-esteeming detective..... Leroy Grenier
Dr. Hall, the coroner..... Harold Berys
Adam Hill, Josiah's manservant..... Oscar Braden
Norman Clayton, reporter; Gilbert's fiance..... Melba Arnoux
Hannah Blodge, Josiah's housekeeper..... Marie LaFrance
Esther Raines, a gossiping neighbor Sophia Powakee
Mary Andrews, household drudge..... Esther Hillman