GIRL'S SPORTS

Four new yew bows and two dozen arrows have arrived for the Archery Club. About 20 girls are in this club. The target, which was painted by "Lefty" Wilder, is put against a hay stack for support.

Mr. Turner is getting the athletic field in good shape and the girls all want to express their appreciation for this work.

The Rambler's Hiking club and the Sunset Hikers enjoyed a treasure hunt prepared by Arlie Stanger and Irene Thomas with the aid of Pauline Pratt and Vina Smith. After five miles of hiking in and around the school the treasure of pie and coffee was found in the woods east of Pigville.

SHOPS

After an absence of almost two weeks, our star shoe repairers, Simeon Bean and Ben Felicia, are back at work again.

Several of the machine shop boys have been sick in the hospital this last week. Everybody had a good time at the machine shop boys' party on April 20.

The plumbers have the water line connected from the cottage to the main behind the hospital. Mr. Matt installed a shower at the dairy. The job, done in sheet metal, was excellent.

There seems to be some misunderstanding about the purpose of the Altamot. It is not a regular cafe but a place where boys are taught restaurant and cafe cooking. As soon as the new serving tables arrive students will be invited in turn to eat at the Altamot. The general public and employees must be denied service.

The painters painted and papered two rooms of the practice cottage. They also painted furniture for the cottage. They also have been busy painting the roofs of different buildings on the campus.

The carpenters recently made a calf-pen, which the painters painted.

The electricians installed a 20 H. P. motor at the dairy barn. This is to be used to run an insilage cutter. As soon as the carpenters finish the floor of the new cottage the electricians will wire the house.

The Hawley hall girls have been very busy making a flower garden. The girls are very grateful to Miss Mountjoy for the plants.

Arnold Logsdon was 13 years old the other day and Mrs. Wilcox gave him a party of "eats" in her room. A birthday cake graced the table. Clifford Olson was 15 years old Easter and he, too, had a feed. Many happy returns of the day, boys! Mitchell hall has a real Persian cat now. Boys are taking much interest in keeping up their rooms and building. Keep it up, boys—a good time is in store for you.

ORGANIZATIONS

The girl scouts of troop 2 had a very delightful weiner and marshmallow roast in the woods April 12. Each patrol showed its skill in building a good fire, using not more than two matches. We were all successful in this, of course. The girls all enjoyed this feast to the fullest extent and wish to express their thanks to Captain Lundquist.

Mary Bowe chop of the Swan patrol has passed her tenderfoot test and is now preparing for second class test. Hurrah for Butch!
