

BASKETBALL*Salem Takes Double-Header

Salem high school's basketeers won a double victory over our boys a week ago yesterday, Jan. 23. The preliminary game played by the two B squads resulted in a 27-16 defeat for the Indians. The high point honors went to Leo Hunter. The A teams of the two schools gave an exciting bit of basketball during the first half, but in the second half the Indians fagged out and the Salem boys took the opportunity to run up the score, which up to the first half was tie. The final score stood 37-23. All the boys played fine ball and gave the fans a good game.

Turner Wins By Final Spurt

In a game played here on the 20th the girls basketball team dropped a game to the Turner sextet to the tune of 27 to 23. The game was good and the local girls did themselves and their coach proud. The game was by no means a lop-sided affair.

Home Quint Snowed Under In Practice Game

In a practice game here on the 18th the Parkers team took the Indians, 58 to 27. The game was above the boys here but they got good experience and did not do so bad the first half, at that. Leonard Vivette, of our last year's team plays with the Parkers and is doing very well. The boys hope for another game with them again soon.

DOINGS AT THE PRACTICE HOUSE

Marjorie Martin has been appointed reporter for the practice house.

Hazel Scott has gone to Portland to take a position. We miss her at the house as she was one of our efficient girls.

Last Thursday the home economic's staff gave a tea at the practice house in honor of Miss Helbing.

On Saturday the practice house served dinner to our visitors on the campus. Those entertained were Misses Stewart, Elderidge, Helbing, Newell, Mrs. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Shilling, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Thompson and Dr. Pritchard. The guests numbered thirteen but so far nothing has happened. After dinner they all attended the senior ball.

Miss Strauch is teaching the related home economic's classes, formerly taught by Miss Newell.

The present group in the house complete their six weeks' stay this week and will entertain their friends one evening this week. All the girls have done their best to be good members of the house.

The radio has been the most popular pastime in the practice house, but not too popular with the instructor when it is on all day.

STUDENT ITEMS

The boys who took the barber's state examination were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hall at their home Thursday night Jan. 25.

Evelyn Placid returned from her home last Friday.

Dorothy Parker spent a day, Jan. 22, in Portland visiting friends.

Thomas Parker, Sr., of Neah Bay, Wash., was here visiting his son, Thomas, and his daughter, Dorothy, recently. Thomas went home with his father.

All the birds are singing just a little louder, the flowers are beginning to bloom indicating that spring is just around the corner. This means that we will all have to dig deeper into our subjects before the school term is over.

Thursday evening Mrs. Smith and her beauty parlor girls gave a demonstration in the form of a contest in the auditorium. This altered the opinion of many as well as proved that beauty culture training requires nimble thinkers as well as agile fingers. The results of the contest were: Dollie Swann was the last girl down, winning first place for herself and her captain's team. Elsie Bisson revealed to the public how a permanent wave is "wrapped." Pearl Boyd, Alva Hawley, and Elsie are going to Portland Monday to take their State Board Examination. We wish the girls the best of luck and hope it will do the trick.
