Mitchell hall has again opened for business. It is now serving the purpose of a commissary.

Laura Morigeau, who has been employed in Portland, is visiting the school. She is a guest of Miss Hoptowit, Frank Dumont, "Lindy" to you, was a campus caller last week. He is official blacksmith at the IE-CW camp at Warm Springs, Ore.

Rev. Father Ildefonse recently purchased a brand new car of which he is justly proud. The make of the automobile is an Essex Terraplane.

Misses Cruise, Hoffman, Lundquist, and Sam Shoulderblade made a trip to the coast Sunday for a picnic. They reported having a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Ruth Bronson, guide and placement officer, from Bernice, Oklahoma, arrived here Sunday evening. Mrs. Bronson is making an official tour of the western states.

Miss Christine Olney with Miss Eula Hudson took a trip to Tacoma, Wash., last week-end to visit Miss Olney's father before he departed on a trip to Washington, D. C.

Mr. Norman J. Spawn, Director of Teacher Training from the Indian Office at Washington, D. C., was a welcome visitor to our fold. Mr. Spawn was here on official business.

Louis Pitt, Chemawa graduate, who has been attending the Ft. Simcoe leader's training school, was a Sunday visitor. He is returning home where he has a job awaiting him.

Mr. Charles E. Larsen, senior clerk, was called to his home last week due to the illness of his father. We all hope the father's condition is not serious. Mr. Larsen returned Saturday.

Supt. and Mrs. Ryan and Mr. Norman J. Spawn made a quick trip to Portland Friday, returning the same day. Saturday they left for the Grande Ronde and Siletz agencies. Both trips had to do with government business.

Messers Carl Turner, George Berry, and Rube Sanders made a determined onslaught on members of "finny tribe" Sunday. They did their fishing somewhere along the coast due west from here. A peek into their private larders would convince us that their efforts were well repaid.

Monday night Mr. Spawn of the Indian office, called a meeting of all vocational teachers. Many details of the vocational work were discussed and some new arrangements made for checking the progress charts. We are always glad to have Mr. Spawn with us as he comes with ideas which are valuable to all.

The younger set, known as "the gang," including Billy Blakeslee, Jimmy Shawver, Buddy Melovidoff, Peter Hauser, Milton Smith and Armand Carrow were present at Georgie Bent's birthday party on April 7. "Pumpkin" had two cakes, one being sent from Oklahoma by his father. They all had a great time.

Miss Eldridge and her staff of stenographers have taken new quarters in the Art building. The change was deemed necessary because of the inconvenience caused both Miss Eldridge and the office "kids" due to overcrowded offices. We all know Miss Eldridge is enjoying the peace and quiet of the Art building.

TACKY DANCE

The tramps, hoboes, farmers, maids and others seen going to the gym Saturday evening, March 31, were just real folks going over for an evening of entertainment and dancing. A humorous program was listed as follows: Solo by Rudolph Maysee; an exhibition quadrille by a group of seniors; a dance of Scotland by Irene Thomas and Amanda Mesteth. After the program surprise packages rained down from the balcony. Prizes for the tackiest persons were given to Rudy Maysee and George Nickolson, who were hardly recognizable in their gruesome make-up and tacky clothes. Just before refreshments were served the lucky ticket holders were announced, first prize going to Thelma Moore.

MUSIC CLUB NEWS

The boys' and girls' music clubs were honored by Mr. William McGilchrist Sr. and his fellow artists of Salem at a very entertaining program Monday night in the lobby of Winona hall. They offered various Scotch and Irish numbers in song and on instruments. Francis Thomas favored us with a vocal solo "Gondola" by Clarke.

Mary Iyall, the presiding officer, wishes to extend thanks to Mrs. Melovidoff and her girls for the nice refreshments they prepared, also Mrs. Wilcox, Miss Semanski and Nellie Hughes for decorating the hall so attractively for the occasion.

JUNIOR NOTES

Avast there mates! Dues are soon due so you know what to do. Ye treasurer says the 21st is the deadline. Woe is me, woe is you.
