CHEMAWA STUDENTS TO ATTEND HIGHER INSTITUTIONS OF LEARNING

We are both pleased and proud to print the names of this year's graduates who have qualified themselves as worthy of continuing up the ladder of education. Tests given these young people by Mrs. Ruth M. Bronson, have shown results which merit them a chance in advanced learning. We are sure that Chemawa is proud of them and they are proud of what Chemawa has done for them. The percentage is large in comparison with the total number of students attending school here and we hope they feel that their efforts were well repaid.

The following is a list of graduates with the schools they plan to attend the next school year:

Francis Thomas, Salem High School; Walter Major, Whapeton, S. Dak.; Vera Rogers, Salem Business College; R. S. Dean, Univ. of Nebraska; I. S. Thomas, Univ. of Nebraska; Winifred Parker, Salem High School; Adam Williams, Haskell (commercial-art); Violet Johnson, Kinman Business College, Spokane, Wn.; Pansy Rutherford, position at Browning Mont.; Nellie Boe, Bozeman, Mont.; Marie Farron, Washington State; Charles Peterson, Riverside Jr. College; Hildred McCarty, Haskell; Clarence Emmons, Haskell; Dorothy Parker, Salem High School, Cyril Archambault, Sherman Institute.

This list does not mean that these are the only graduates who are going to continue in school. These are those who have something definite and have qualified for it.

CEREMONIES ON HISTORIC SPOT

The Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers will sponsor an All-day Oregon picnic on Saturday, May 5th, at Champeog Park. This park used to be the scene of an annual visit of the Chemawa band and merely to mention the name of Champeog will bring back nostalgia of "big eats" and stirring marches to past and present bandsmen.

The following is a program which will be presented:

10:30-Tree Planting, dedicated to Champeog Heroes and to 75 years of statehood. American Legion Auxiliary Glee Club, Post No. 1, P. A. Ten Haaf, Director, will sing Joyce Kilmer's poem "Trees." Boy Scout Troop No. 11, laying wreath on monument with ceremony.

11 A. M.-Reception by Bertha Slater Smith, President and Hostesses, State Bungalow.

12 Noon to 2 P. M.-Basket Dinner. Hot Coffee may be obtained on grounds.

2 P.M.- John C. Veatch, Vice Chairman, presiding. Community Singing, American Legion Auxiliary, Post No. 1, P. A. Ten Haaf, Director, Helen Poling Lancefield (Soloist), Granddaughter of Oregon Pioneers of 1845.

CHAPEL

In chapel Sunday, April 16, the orchestra played "Singing While Weeping" by Moreno and the choir sang "We Bless Thee For Thy Peace" by Briggs. Mr. Decorah and his shoe and harness makers held an interesting contest pertaining to different styles and parts of shoes. The contest ended in a tie and the cake was eaten by all the contestants.

In chapel Sunday, April 23, the orchestra played as a request number "Melody of Love" by Engelmann, the choir sang "Sing of the Love of Jesus" by Chalinor. Supt. Ryan made a few brief announcements and the assembly adjourned by singing the school song.

TRIP TO COAST

On the week-end of April 14 the senior commercial class vacationed to Oceanside on the coast and caused the solitude of the sea lions to become mythical.

Two cabins were rented and the stenographers immediately unpacked and dived into the arms of Neptune, remaining there full time, emerging only for meals and to take a casual look at the scenery in the immediate vicinity. During these intervals the mighty mountains and rock caverns were thoroughly explored. On Sunday morning a select party of endurable persons hiked over deserts and mountains to visit a light-house.

Pansy Rutherford took all honors as champion mountain climber; Miss Cruise as best mountain descender; "Egg" Conway, the camp's hash slinger; Irene Thomas, the biggest loafer; all other awards were divided equally.

After allowing the ocean and sand to "get in their hair" for two days the party collected their starfish and other belongings, climbed into the "Salem Indian School" truck and came home.
