

VOCATIONS

AUTO SHOP

The E.C.W. boys are laying a neat layer of sand and gravel behind our shop.

This space will be used for parking and washing cars. Our blacksmith shop is being rebuilt and a new forge will be installed.

"Gable" Christian and Alpheous Big-horn completed welding an engine-head on a Cheverolet coupe.

CARPENTER SHOP

Vernon Jackson is putting together a beautiful walnut table for Mr. and Mrs. Turney. Louis Levay is working diligently on a combination bookstand and end table which he hopes to sell for "Christmas money."

MACHINE SHOP

Edward Archambeau and Oscar Moses are making tables using Indian designs.

Roy Pepion is the chief designer for Indian symbols. He has made designs for paper knife handles and Alex Shipentower cuts them out and puts the finishing touches on them. Bob Green has completed a lamp in the shop.

BARBER SHOP

The barbers have been doing nothing but cut hair all day long. They have classes all morning which enables them to study the scientific part of barber science. The boys would like to learn the art of "finger waving" but so far they have had no one to practice on.

JUNIOR COMMERCIAL

The juniors started their ten minute speeches early in November and they are now through. Many of the speeches were educational and entertaining. Six of the junior commercial boys are rapidly improving in their shorthand due to the student help of Martha Bingham.

HOME ECONOMICS

Mrs. Newell's "child care class" has been studying how to develop good citizenship, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and personality in growing children.

Last week a new subject was started in

Miss Newell's class. It is called good personality. It is very interesting and the girls help in making good outlines of it. Previous to this other character building subjects were studied.

The sophomores have been making different things in their cooking classes.

They were successful in making noodle soup. Candy and chocolate drop cookies were also made.

Mrs. James sewing class is making many useful and beautiful things.

Among these are: Buffet sets, knitting bags, purses, handkerchiefs, pillow cases, bath and hand towels and other things.

The class drew names to make one another Christmas gifts.

WANTED

One Christopher Cringle, alias Santa Claus, for deliberate and premeditated entry, via chimney into thousands of American homes.

Age... about 2,000 years Weight... a good load for eight reindeers.

Height... tall enough to be a short policeman but he's never caught flat-footed. Habits... decided tendency to break out (or in) around December 25th. Disposition... genial but watch your pocket-book. Features... red nose handlebar moustaches, heavy growth of white fuzz on chin. Known to be killer... of blues, troubles, cares and worries.

Reward

A generous reward will be paid to anyone who locates the old gentleman on or before December 25th. The reward will be doubled if he can be persuaded to visit each one of our good friends and patrons to express our hearty good wishes for a Merry Christmas. The reward will be tripled if he leaves each of our old friends a giant stocking filled with happiness, peace and prosperity for 1937.

THE AMERICAN

Campus News

Elzie Farrow and Dan Motanic, both of Pendleton and graduates of Chemawa, were here for the senior carnival.

The boys and girls are writing many letters in hopes that they may get a letter stating that they may go home for Christmas vacation.

Miss Livina Donnelly was surprised by a visit from her mother, Mrs. Donnelly, from Alaska. She visited for a few days here and has returned home.

For the last two or three Sundays we have been having basketball games between different classes in the gymnasium. There seems to be quite a rivalry between the Varsity and All-Star teams. Both are very good.

Mr. Mason and his niece, Miss Ruby Kessling, returned from Tacoma, where they spent a very enjoyable week-end visiting relatives and friends.

Supt. Jackson, Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Showalter returned the latter part of last week from Texas. They had a very nice trip visiting the different Indian schools and reservations throughout the Southwest. They also visited Sherman Institute before returning home.

The boys in McNary hall are all getting ready to greet dear old Santa Claus.

Many wreaths of holly are being placed in the rooms, and many other decorations are going up. Everyone is trying his best to get the best decorated room. A prize is to be given on Christmas day.

The grade school building, the commercial room and the junior high school rooms have christmas trees that are decorated with red flowers and red and green streamers.

Myron Anderson, a former student of Chemawa, has been a visitor of Chemawa for the past few days. He has just returned from the navy and is on his way home to visit his parents.

The Serenaders went to Salem last Monday to give their program at Highland School. A photographer was there and took pictures of them which might go into the Statesman.

Subscribe for the "CHEMAWA AMERICAN," 50 cents Per Annum