

A Rhythm Chief's Dream

Just Songs

My "Lucky Star," Dorothy

As I sit in my "Old Rocking Chair" 'neath the "Blue Moon" "On The Beach at Bali Bali" I can't help but "Dream of You," I wonder "Are You Thinking of Me Tonight?"

"All My Life" I've hoped for "Someone Like You" but now "It's Over" and I'm really "Sorry" but "You Let Me Down" so all I can say is, I have "No Regrets" after all "I'm Just An Old Cow Hand." I guess "You'r Not The Kind" of a girl for a boy like me, because I don't know much about "Living In A Great Big Way" Listen "Sugar" just forget about me and "These Foolish Things" I'm saying because "It's Over Because We're Through" and "If It's True What They Say About Dixie" that's where I'll be because I'm "Crying For The Carolines" I want to see the "Moon Rise On The Lowlands" and watch "Old Man River" as I listen to a "Louisiana Fairy Tale" and hear in the distance a "Swanee Lullaby."

"Take My Heart With You" "Always" and being "It's A Sin To Tell A Lie" because "It Ain't Right" I'll have to go on "Confessing" that "I Love You Truly" because "I Can't Escape From You." I guess it was "Just A Summer Romance" but "I'd Love To Take Orders From You" because "You're So Darn Charming."

"Bye Bye Baby" and don't forget to "Keep Your Fingers Crossed" I hope "Someday Sweetheart" you'll see that "I Am The Kind Of A Guy For A Girl Like You."

"Until Today" I've been just "Day Dreaming" I suppose, so "Until The Real Thing Comes Along" I'll say "Good-Bye."

"I Am Yours,"

Marriages Of Former Students

Mr. Larsen's secretary, Ruby Dean, surprised all of her friends on the campus by getting married a week or so ago. Her husband, Mr. Edwin Leno, is a resident of Grand Ronde. We wish them all the luck in world.

Miss Alice Bachman, a former and prominent Chemawa student, was married recently to Mr. Floyd Avery of Portland, Oregon.

CHEMAWA QUINTET LOSES ONE IN FOUR STARTS

Chemawa Cops Initial Casaba Game Of The Season

On December 17, on the home floor, Chemawa's A and B strings easily won over the Gervais teams. Chemawa's second team won by a score of 33 to 12 with Lodge, Bostwick, and Bearcub leading the scoring attack. Lodge made 14 of the 33 points for the Indians.

Chemawa's varsity won by a score of 46 to 17 with Green leading the scoring attack and making 16 of the points.

Indians Play Slovenly Game With Woodburn And Lose 19-32

Last Friday Coach Wilder and his basketball team of stalwart Indians were defeated by Woodburn by a score of 19 to 32 on the latter's court.

Woodburn, led by their six foot center and forward, rolled up a terrific score before the Indians started hitting the hoop. The first quarter ended with Woodburn leading 15 to 3 and the half 9 to 18.

The second half opened like a whirlwind with the Braves making baskets from all angles, but the Indians handicapped by the height of the palefaces could not get a hold of the ball is the reason which caused their defeat.

Christians was high scorer for the Indians. The Chemawa B team won from the Woodburn second team 26 to 9 with Bostwick high point player.

Molalla Is Humbled By Fast Breaking Offense Of Braves

Coach Wilder and his Chemawa Redskins scored a double win over Molalla's first and second teams on Dec. 15th on the Molalla floor.

Chemawa's varsity led Molalla throughout the whole game and rolled up a final score of 48 to 23. The Indians scoring attack clicked with perfection for Molalla was unable to check them at any time very effectively. "Bud" Archambeau was the star of the evening with 23 points.

Chemawa's second string played a good game. The Indians were trailing at the end of the first half, by a score of 8 to 6, but the team came back strongly to win by a score of 22 to 15.

"Bud" Archambeau Leads Braves In Scoring Spree Against Sandy

Coach Wilder and his Indians scored a double win over Sandy on December 18th on the opponent's floor. The second team won by a score of 53 to 21.

The second string so far has had a very successful season for it has won every game.

The varsity won by a score of 38 to 18. "Bud" Archambeau led the Indian scorers and made over half of the points. Red Elk at center and Bighorn played a very good game. Chemawa's offensive and defensive game is improving as the season progresses, and Coach Wilder expects by mid-season to have a fast powerful team.

All-Stars Swish Hoop Like Wall Street Ticker Against Brooks

The All-Star basketball team, composed of players not eligible for high school competition, opened their season on Dec. 15th to defeat Brooks by an overwhelming score on the Chemawa floor. The Indians managed to outplay and outpass the Brooks quintet throughout the game. They began their spree early in the first quarter and never stopped until the final whistle blew.

They chalked up a 62-10 victory over their opponents.

The All Star team has joined a league which is made up of teams from the towns in the surrounding country and expect to play a number of games with these teams during the season.

The girls inter-class basketball tournament ended with the juniors as champions and the other three classes trying for second.

The juniors won every game they played with the other classes. The sophomores won from the freshmen, seniors from the sophomores and the freshmen from the seniors.

The captains of the class teams are as follows: Josephine Reynolds, senior; Wilma Yellowrobe, junior; Dorothy Southern, sophomore; and Anna Archdale, freshman.
