

CHEMAWA MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS ENTERTAIN BRUSH COLLEGE GRANGE

On Friday evening, January 8, the girls' sextette, the boys' septette, and the school orchestra went to Brush College to entertain grange members of that community.

The program given by these groups consisted of several numbers by the girls' sextette, numbers by the boys' septette, and solo numbers by Francis Thomas, the boys' soloist. The school orchestra entertained with three selections during the evening's program.

The students who participated in this musical program were well received by the appreciative grange audience who in turn favored the Chemawa group with a well prepared dinner.

YWCA Notes

The YWCA had a wonderful time when they met last Sunday morning. Our president mentioned something about the mid-year conference to be held in Corvallis on Jan. 29. The rest of the period was spent in singing conference songs and rounds. Some new members were added to the roll call.

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. Fullerton, public health supervisor from Spokane, and his wife, were visitors during the past week. Dr. Fullerton inspected the hospital and the dormitories while he was here.

Mr. Hirst, director of Indian education of Alaska, inspected Winona hall Sunday morning. He explained he was well pleased with the cleanliness of the rooms. Let's keep that word true, girls.

Miss Louise Bradford, who is a native of Oklahoma, has come to take Mrs. LaDuc's place as grade school teacher. This is her first experience teaching Indians except those who attended the public school where she taught before. The "American" welcomes her to Chemawa and hopes that she will enjoy her work here on the campus.

The girls in the gym classes have learned enough about table tennis to be interested in a table tennis tournament which started this week. The champions in this game will be decided in this tournament.

ATHLETICS

SENIORS CROWNED XMAS PENTATHLON CHAMPIONS

Varsity And All-Stars Victorious In Games During Yule Season

The students remaining here during Christmas were entertained every afternoon in the gym by inter-class activities for both boys and girls.

The girls activities consisted of a potato race, basketball dribble, sack race, Indian club race, three legged race and a basketball game. The boys activities consisted of rope climbing, wheelbarrow race, horse and rider relay, horse and rider jousting, boxing, wrestling, shoe race and a basketball game.

Much competition was shown among the players, but the Seniors proved themselves worthy of being the undefeated team which made them champions. The small but mighty freshmen placed second, the juniors third, and the sophomores came fourth.

The last afternoon, a team composed of Freshman and Sophomores played a team of Juniors and Seniors. The upper classmen won this contest on New Year's Day.

All-Stars Defeat Turner Town Team In Impressive Style

In the opener for the Willamette Valley town team basketball league, the Chemawa Indians won over the Turner Indians by a score 76 to 10. Al Bighorn, Leonard Bighorn and Wallace Zundle led the scoring attack for the Indians making 57 of the points between them. Al Bighorn was high point man with 23.

In the preliminary Chemawa's varsity won over the Salem YMCA by a score of 28 to 26.

Newberg Town Team No Match For Fast Passing Attack Of All-Stars

On Saturday, January 2, the Chemawa All-Stars defeated the Newberg All-Stars in an exciting and fast game.

Chemawa was out-reached by the tall men which Newberg had on the team, but Newberg was no match for Chemawa in speed. Regardless of the score, the game was exciting to watch and it kept everyone on his feet.

Al Bighorn of Chemawa led with a total of 16 points with Zundle making 12. The final score was 42 to 28 in the Indians favor.

Varsity Downs Hubbard For Second Time In Return Clash

The Chamawa Redskins defeated Hubbard high, Tuesday, January 5, on Hubbard's floor. Coach Wilder's hoopsters were in good form and made the going tough for the Hubbard team. In the first quarter the Indians led 12 to 2. At the end of the first half Chemawa led 30 to 13. Earnest Bighorn and Bud Archambeau, were exceptionally "hot," and led the Indians for high point honors, with 23 and 22 points. In the last two minutes of play Hubbard got going, but the Indians had too much of a lead for them to catch up. The final score was Chemawa 53, Hubbard 30.

Woodburn Training School And Molalla Humbled In Yule Fricas

Hitting the basket from all angles, the flashy Indian quintet riding high on the victory wave, sank the Molalla Buckaroos by the overwhelming score of 73 to 17. Ernie Bighorn dropped in seven field goals and five free throws for high point honors. Roy Track with 16 points Christians with 11, and Red Elk with 11 helped run up the score to a very substantial lead. A Molalla guard led his team with five points.

In another game during the holidays the Braves defeated the Woodburn Training School 76 to 11 in a very one sided game. Chemawa took the lead early in the first quarter, and at no time was the lead threatened. Captain Archambeau led the scoring attack with 12 field goals and two gift shots.

A new basketball tournament began this week between the members of the different council groups. The tournament will eliminate the teams until the council group winning team is decided. The girls who play on these teams have an opportunity to win points toward their letter.
