

Sportlights

by Adam Bearcub

Chemawa Teams Driving Foward

After many practice sessions Coach Jerry Gatsineau placed these as his 1938-39 squads: Melvin Woundedeye, Frank Backbone, Henry Scalpcane, Roy Track, Tony Shoulderblade, Chico Norton, Everett Oatman, Alfred Smith, Orville Danzuka, and Arthur Van Pelt as his first ten.

The Papposes are represented by Lodge, Weeks, Hall, Fallsdown, Bearchum, Laroque, Bazil, Simmons, Whitford, and Whiteclay.

Gastineau's hoopers opened the basketball season by roundly trouncing the Mt. Angel quint by the score of 43-25. The Papposes also romped to a 25-7 victory. Backbone was the high point man by hemping 20 points and Lodge tallied 16 markers for the Papposes.

In a closely fought battle the Chemawa chiefs nosed out the Pioneers with the score of 29-30 count. Scalpcane and Woundedeye tallied 10 counts each. The braves led throughout most of the game leading at the halftime 16-17. The Chemawa Bees lost to a 38-26 count.

Coach Jerry Gastineau's fleet Indian quintet, breaking like wild mustangs, hemped 23 points to take scoring honors and also making it possible for the West's win. Scalpcane, Indian forward, was chiefly responsible for the high score by swishing 12 counters through the hoop.

Coming from behind in the second quarter the Chiefs displayed dazzling speed and ball handling that the dazed Berrypickers could not equal. The Chiefs were easily the class of the Jamboree with Scalpcane flicking them in with ease.

The Indians returned to Teepee Town with the prized basketball which was presented to them for scoring the greatest number of points in the Jamboree.

Three braves from Teepee Town were placed on the WVI All Star basketball team. Henry Scalpcane, who pots them in the hoop from the side, was placed at the left forward post with his running mate, Backbone, who is a genius with the one handed shot, and who usually flicks them in from all angles, was placed at the right forward position. Track, who hounds his man from start to finish, and who usually hems them in from way back, was placed at the right guard position.

The Indian All-Stars, major league defending champions, swished a 24-19 victory over the Grand Theater quintet.

Dowd, Indian forward, hemped nine points to take top scoring honors. At half time the score stood Grand Theater 17, All-Stars 15. In the second half the Indians got hot and showed the crowd how they took the championship by sinking 9 counters to only 2 for their opponents.

The All-Stars have a coach and sponsor, Mr. Shawver,

Local News

Due to the death of her uncle, Kathleen McLean was called to her home last Saturday. Her many friends here wish to express their deepest sympathy.

The Senior Commercial girls spent a delightful evening at the Hoffmann's last Friday. The evening was happily spent in playing Bunco, after which refreshments were served.

The "Village School" was presented by the members of the Junior class under the sponsorship of Miss Wentzel, last Saturday, for the benefit of raising funds toward the annual and the Junior Prom. Miss Wentzel and the cast wish to express their appreciation to the faculty and students who helped raise the funds by attending the play.

Miss Mary Jane LaRogue and Thomas Jones were married in Seattle. They and Aleatha Whizz visited old classmates last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are planning to live in Seattle.

Mr. John Sharp, a former tailor here at Chemawa, and Bernadet Lukin were married in Browning, Montana. They will reside at Fort Wingate, where John is teaching tailoring.

Thank You

I wish to express my deepest appreciation to all employees and friends for the beautiful flowers and messages of sympathy extended to me at the loss of my father.

Ila White