

Just Seniors

SHE hails from Harlem, Montana, where she graduated from the Harlem Public School. She then came to Chemawa to enter her freshman year. Her sophomore year found her president of that class, and her junior year found her studying commercial. She is now the secretary of the Senior Class and former president of the little Flower Society. Her greatest ambition is to be a success.

Her hobby is writing and you might guess that her favorite past time is eating. Although one must admit that is a wee bit unusual, for she and her roommate "Dodo" Day often eat after nine P.M. Even if she doesn't eat much of anything else her greatest weakness is stewed prunes.

In less serious moments you may hear her exclaiming "Oh you!" She is fair in work and play, has a keen sense of humor, and is friendly. These are a few of the things that go to make up this winning little personality of Erma "Slinger" Chamberlin.

THE treasurer of the Seniors rated eating as a satisfactory reply. Friends of Edward Archambeau may say that sports is his idea of fun. He has an active interest in sports, but basketball, baseball and track rank highest with him. Further questioning reveals that he also has a liking for tennis and "deer" hunting.

Through Athletics he has earned four stripes, but he thinks three stripes are more attractive on his "C" sweater.

Edward's nickname is "bud" or "buddy."

Buddy was born at Wolf Point, Montana, March 2, 1919. He attended school at Poplar, Montana.

Bud's one ambition is to be a machinist and he "hopes" to be a good one.

If one should ask him what his hobby is, he might volunteer that he "likes to sleep."

He was former vice-president of the Junior Class. He has been an officer for three years.

Friendly to everyone, ready and interested in all activities is Edward "Bud" Archambeau.

Campus Gossip

Rollo Brown visits Track's room quite frequently to listen to that haunting melody, "Margie," which Track plays for him when ever Rollo wants to reminisce.

Girls! Beware of the Berkshire brothers, Whitord, Simmons, Shilo, and Whiteclay, better known as the Pigville Playboys.

Lory Vivette insists that she is going to marry for love. Kay "Stubby" Hamilton and Ivy McKinney are pretty stiff competitors for the name of "store rats." Every four o'clock, without fail, they are in the store "dunking" doughnuts and "guzzling" root beer.

'Christy' Amyotte, the boy who hails from the middle west, says that he can hook any girl on the campus any time he wishes. He is considering the possibility of having a bad case, and is looking over prospects, so watch out girls and be careful for he minces no words.

"Pee-Wee" Gerard has a new toy that he carries around just like a wee baby with its first rattle. He enjoys it immensely. Ask him to see it sometime.

COMMERCIAL—The Senior Commercial students are typing manuscripts that have been transcribed from shorthand work. These will be given to the grade school for reading material.

In Business English they have completed reading "Gone With The Wind" and are now having a short review on Grammar before beginning another interesting book.

They are typing the Social Economic Class material on different tribes. These are to be kept on file and sent to Washington D. C.

Edith Track has received her fifty-word a minute award. The remainder of the class are striving for their awards.

Everyone seems to be wondering who made a "drindle handout" bag in the Senior Commercial sewing class.
