

CALENDAR

- Dec. 23—Preparation for Christmas in Home rooms. Special assignments later
- Dec. 24—Community Christmas Program in gym
- Dec. 25—7:30 a.m. Breakfast; 12:30 p.m. Dinner; 5:00 p.m. Supper; 7:00 p.m. Dance in gym, chaperon, Mrs. Hauser
- Dec. 26—Morning detail; 1:30 p.m. Interclass games; 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. Girls Scout party, YW Room; Basketball game, chaperon, Mrs. Rickard
- Dec. 27—Morning detail; 1:30 p.m. Interclass games; 7:30 p.m. Basketball game, chaperon, Mrs. Turney
- Dec. 28—1:00 p.m. Girls' town day, chaperon Miss Cruise; Special program by students, chairman, Mr. Showalter
- Dec. 29—Campus duty, Mr. Doerkson; 1:00 p.m. Boys' show; 7:00 p.m. Christmas vacation ends for all students except those who go to Montana or northern Idaho, who have until Jan. 5th
- Dec. 30—School
- Dec. 31—Gym decorated by freshmen; 5:00 p.m. supper; 7:30 p.m. show; 9:00 to 12:00 p.m. Dance for McNary and Winona hall students, chaperon, Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Johnson
- Jan. 1—Happy New Year; 7:30 a.m. Breakfast; 12:30 p.m. Dinner; 5:00 p.m. Supper
- Jan. 2—School

Chapel Program

The chapel service on December 8th, was very splendid. After the flag salute, "The Star Spangled Banner," and Holy, Holy, Holy," were sung. The choir sang a number entitled "Valley of Memories," and the orchestra played the selection, "Love Comes Stealing," by Lincke. Mr. Lovell sang a splendid solo, entitled, "The Holy City." Miss Eckert was the guest speaker of the evening. She told of the relations of one country with another, mentioning several world conferences of young people. Miss Eckert stressed four points for better living. These were (1) courage, (2) self-control, (3) strength, and (4) initiative.

After chapel, a reception was held at Winona hall by the Hi-Y and Y W C A honoring Miss Eckert. Tea, cookies, and candied orange-peelings were served. A program was presented, including two songs by George Comenote, a hymn sung in the Sioux Indian language by Adam Bearcub, Mylie Allman, and Viola Redelk, a song, "Thanks Be to God," by four members of the quintette accompanied by Mrs. Turney, and an Indian legend by Marjorie Skahan. All the Y W C A girls sang, "The Candles Burn." Miss Eckert expressed her appreciation of being here. We wish to extend our welcome to Miss Eckert to visit us again.

Football Banquet

The Senior Foods class gave a very enjoyable banquet for the members of Chemawa's football team, and guests on December 4th, at Hawley hall. There were 47 guests present, who heartily enjoyed the swiss steak dinner. Guests who spoke during the evening included Father O'Connell, Supt. Jackson, Mr. Howard Maple of Salem, Mr. Hauser, Mr. Sanders, Mr. Turney, Mr. Mackie, Mr. Showalter, Mr. Bennett, who was Toastmaster, and Mr. LaVatta. The football boys thought the football season must have been very worth while to have such a grand banquet served to them.

Bridge Club

A group of employees who have met regularly every two weeks for Bridge have just completed the first series. It was agreed there would be no prizes and no refreshments, but at the end of each series, the losers were to entertain the winners with a party with prizes and refreshments. Definite plans have not been completed but there is a rumor going around that it will be a week-end party at Agate Beach. Scores have been kept and the losers are Miss White, Mrs. Cronk, Mrs. Hoffmann, Mr. Jackson, Mr. Shoulderblade, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Shultz, Mr. Chase, and Miss Warner.

How Mr. Pulitzer Pronounced His Own Name

It was from the handsome Irishman EDWARD J. GALLAGHER, mayor of Laconia, N. H., and editor of the "Laconia Evening Citizen," that told this story:

"Mr. EDSON C. EASTMAN, proprietor of a book store at Concord, N. H., told me of meeting the late JOSEPH PULITZER in a stage coach on a day's journey through the White Mountains, in the eighties. Mr. and Mrs. PULITZER and Mr. and Mrs. EASTMAN passed the time pleasantly.

At the conclusion of the trip, Mr. EASTMAN spoke of his enjoyment of the company of the New York publisher, but said there was one thing that troubled him. He had not learned how to pronounce the publisher's name. Mr. PULITZER replied: 'What do you do when you wish to open a door?' 'Lift the latch and push it,' replied Mr. EASTMAN. 'No, pull it sir,' replied the owner of the New York World and St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

—SHINING LINES

Miss Sunrise left on Saturday, December 14, for Oklahoma, where she will spend the holidays.