Chemawa Plans for In-Service and Indian Youth Conference in February

An In-Service and Indian Youth Conference, to be held on the campus from February 17 to 21, will include both students and instructors from Indian Reservations in the Northwest.

The conference will be held in connection with the question of developing a national or service-wide organization of Indian youths.

Those who are directing the conference are: Mr. William Goodwin, Associate Supervisor of Agriculture, Mr. James Arentson and Miss Cleora Helbing, from the Washington Office, who will assist. Among the outside speakers are: Mr. Earl Cooley, Supervisor of Agriculture for Oregon; Mr. H. C. Seymore, State Leader of the 4-H Clubs of Oregon; Wayne D. Harding, Marion County 4-H Club leader; and a horticulturist expert from Oregon State College, to talk on the subject of "The Home Family Vegetable Garden."

Our own agriculture teachers and staff, in general, are working very hard to get ready for this conference. Mr. Goodwin will be here February 10th, to work out a specific program for the conference. Others expected to attend are: F. H. McBride and Miss Pauline H. Clark from the Blackfeet Agency; Miss Rose K. Brandt of Billings, Montana; Mrs. Susie S. Calaway from the Colville Agency; Carl Hartman from the Northern Idaho Agency; Maurice Z. Sketton and Ira R. Bowman of Rocky Boy's Agency; Jerry Thompson, John W. Griffith, Miss Wyona M. Florence, from the Tongue River Agency; Webster G. Pannell and Lawrence Fairbairn from the Warm-springs Agency; and Clairborne Lickett, Rayno W. Pentilla, and Miss E. Bernice Brown from the Wind River Agency. A few members of the latter groups are student representatives.

Although a definite program has not yet been arranged, the general sessions will be divided into two groups, the Instructors' Section, and the Youths' section.

Discussions will concern the aims and objectives of the conference, such as possible 4-H club organizations, and programs and activities of the Future Farmers of America. The question of whether a National organization of Indian youth is desirable will also be discussed. There may be demonstration classes of various agriculture activities. Reports and recommendations will be made on the activities of the appointed committees throughout the conference.

Chemawa is eagerly looking forward to welcoming the many people who will attend the conference.

Supt. Jackson Addresses Students

The chapel service on January 5, in charge of Mr. Jackson, was a very impressive program. After the flag salute, which opens all chapel services, the entire assembly sang "America." The choir sang a number entitled, "Twilight Serenade," by Adams, after which the orchestra played the selection, "The Dance of the Doll," by Sereby.

As the speaker of the evening, Mr. Jackson gave several splendid points on "What You Should Get Out of Chemawa." The points he stressed were: (1) Learn to be a good worker; (2) acquire skill in some vocation; (3) stand on your own feet and don't alibi; (4) make friends; (5) good intentions don't get you very far; (6) be a self-starter; (7) success and failure come in degrees; (8) determine your own place; (9) learn to respect authority; and (10) if you are to command, you can't get something for nothing.
