

Items of Interest

Owen Grant, Henry Hilliare, Jessie Mathews, and Lewis Brown were visitors on the campus over the week-end of Feb. 22.

The boys and girls enjoyed a show day in Salem on Feb. 22.

The Chemawa orchestra played at Hazel Green on Feb. 27.

Mr. LaVatta was an honored guest on the campus the second week in February.

The junior class had their pictures taken at the Kennel-Ellis studio for the Annual on Feb. 14-15.

The 141st. infantry at Fort Lewis, Washington, was transferred the second week in February. Many Indian men were in this battery, including former Frances James' husband, Victor Metoxen, and Preston Bell, a former student of Chemawa.

The Chemawa Bridge Club met at Bowman's on Monday the 23rd of February, with Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, Miss Hall, and Mr. Ury as hosts. Refreshments were served and Mr. Shawver rated highest score.

Thirty employees and members of their families are taking a night course in First Aid. They have completed half of their course. Dr. Hockett of Salem comes out on Wednesday nights to teach the class.

The Grade school students take turns watching for airplanes throught out the day. Observation is held in front of R.G.s store. Employees and people who live near Chemawa and one older boy from McNary observe for two hour watch periods until eight in the morning.

Mr. Don Chase, who has been employed in the office as property clerk for several years, left during February to take an office position in the Colorado River Agency, Parker, Arizona. Before leaving his many freinds honored him by giving him a party in the Practice House. He was presented with an eversharp pen and pencil set, a remembrance from his many friends.

Hazel Green Players Enjoyed

"Aunt Tillie Goes to Town," was the name of the amusing play given by the Hazel Green Players in the Auditorium, Feb. 20. The plot of the play was centered around Aunt Tillie, who was a man hater. Other members of the cast who made the play very enjoyable were: Aunt Tillie's maid, Helen Meyers; Pamela a novelist, Merna Bissell; Ellen Neeland, Gertrude Zielinski; Ronald Howland, Hubert Aspinwall; Luther Lorrimer, his employer, Kenneth Maguren; Mervin Tucker, Bernard Zielinski Charlie One Lung, a cook, Henry Yoshikia; Mrs. Tillie Tucker, Dorothy Wacken; Dr. Hattie Bing, a chiropractor, Mary Wampler. The play was produced under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Holboke, assisted by Mrs. Marie Stettler.

The students enjoyed all af the humorous incidents of the play very much and wish to thank the players for a most enjoyable evening of fun and laughter.

Grade School activities

In Miss Hall's class room, the students have been making clothes for their doll and they have all been looking after it. Last week they had a birthday party for the doll.

Since the weather has been so cold and it is quiet hard for the birds to get food, they have been feeding the birds on a table they have built outside their classroom window. Nearlyt-wenty five birds come there to eat everyday.

Five new pupils have entered Miss Hall's class.

They are helping national defense by saving all the paper they can.

They have also started a program of killing all rats, so the class can get some baby chicks to care for.

Miss Chamber's class have been studying about rubber, sugar, oil, and paper and how our supply of each is affected since the war started.

They lost their mother rabbit so now they have to care and feed the rabbits with a teaspoon and an eye dropper

Catholic Daughters Entertain CYO

"Why don't we do this more often," was what most of the CYO members said after attending the roller skating party which was sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America in Salem Friday, February 27.

After attending church service, the boys got into the truck which was waiting, and the girls rode in the bus. They left the church at seven-thirty and skated until ten o'clock. The skaters enjoyed the music of "Rose O'Day," "Tis Autumn," and "Blues in the Night" to skate and keep time with. You can imagine how much enjoyment was had with the lights dimmed low and every body skating "couples only." The exhibition put on by the members of the rink was pleasing to see. The evening of skating closed with everybody skating the grand march.