Hill Military Meet

Chemawa finished in the top division in the meet with 25 other high schools which was held in Portland last month.

The highlights of the meet were the pole vaulting aces, Cornelius Warmerdam, holder of the present pole vaulting mark of 15 ft. 7 and 1-4 in., and Earle Meadows, former U. S. C. star and former holder of the pole vaulting record.

Les Steers, holder of the present high jump mark of 6 ft. 7 and 1-8 in. also staged an exhibition before a large crowd.

The Chemawa relay team consisted of Harrison, Youngman, Olerking, and Walters.

Chemawa Cindermen Noses Silverton

The Chemawa Indian trackmen defeated the Silver Foxes by a narrow margin last Thursday on the Indians' cinders.

The 880-yard run was won by Youngman, clicking the watch at 2 minutes, 24 seconds. Other events won by the Indians were: the 440-yard run, taken by McMeal in the slow time of 1 minute, 1 second. The high jump was taken by "Bud" Edden, jumping at the height of 5 ft., 6 in. Don Williams was tied for first place in the pole vault at 11 ft. He also won first place in the javelin. The shotput was taken by Whitford, tossing the 12 pound weight 39 ft. 4 in.

The mile relay was easily taken by the Indians' team, consisting of Youngman, "Greg" Rice, Harrison, and Walters.

Buckaroos Down Chiefs

In a Big-nine clash at Chemawa, the Molalla Buckaroos defeated the local Braves.

The lack of experience showed up in the first four innings, with the Chiefs making many errors and the Buckaroos taking advantage to move up to a lead that the Braves could not overcome.

The starting mound men for the Chiefs were "Pomp" Williams and "Curly" Davis, who tried to hold the visitors on even terms. The honors went to "Little" Skahan who got two singles and one double in four trips to the plate.

The game ended with the Chiefs on a very short end of a 12 to 1 score.

Chemawa Nine Loses

The Chemawa baseball team lost to Woodburn in a very good game at the Bulldogs' home field on Tuesday afternoon with the score 9 to 6.

"Curly" Davis was the starting pitcher for the Braves and did well in keeping the Braves in the game. The score was close all the way. The second pitcher for the Indians was "Lou" Beaudry, who also did very well.

There was one three base hit made by the Indians and some double plays, the Indians played very well.
