Editorial

There are just a few more days of school, and the seniors do not feel happy about it. But most of the undergraduates say, "Oh, goody! Just a few more days."

But the Seniors look back on the memorable events of our four years, and it seems no more than a year ago that we entered.

You juniors we hope all of you will return next fall as seniors. And you sophomores will return as the "mighty juniors" and be ready for the prom. And you poor little green freshies we assure you that you haven't so long to go to graduate; so stick with it and before you know it you will be seniors.

To all of the classes we wish the best of luck. And to all the teachers who have done their very best in teaching and guiding us throughout the years we say "Thank you and good-bye."—PETE GEORGE

Class Prophecy

It is exactly ten years from the time the seniors of "43" were presented their diplomas to go out into the world and either succeed or fail. Most of them, as you see, are doing wonderfully well in their occupations. We look through our television to see them.

Flash! Flash! "We're looking in on the world's lightweight champion, defending his title for the tenth consecutive time at Madison Square Garden.

"It's a right blow to the jaw and a left—then a right," the opponent is T.K.O'd. The winner, in the second round, is Mr. Ralph Summers of Reserve, Montana.

She dives through the air with the greatest of ease, the stunt aviatrix, Peggy Choate from Montana. She owns her own plane and runs a six-passenger ship from Helena to Los Angeles once a week.

One of the farmers in Yakima is producing many fruits and vegetables. It is Mr. Toney Skahan Jr.
