News Briefs

Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Tysinger, formerly of Phoenix, Arizona are residents of Chemawa. Dr. Tysinger is Superintendent of Education, most of his service being in the Southwest. He succeeds Supt. Carl Stevens of Salem, now retired. Dr. and Mrs. Tysinger have two children, Richard and Catherine Ann.

Mr. Jeremiak Marsden is employed as property clerk. He lives in Brooks, Oregon.

Miss Pita Cajete, formerly of Albuquerque, New Mexico, has joined our school as nurse.

The position of assistant matron in Winona Hall is being filled by Mrs. Ethel Hauser.

George O. Williams is now our night watchman.

Miss Edith Mae Workman, formerly chief clerk of Colville Indian Agency, is our new appointed chief clerk. Old friends here welcome her, as this is her second assignment to Chemawa.

Mr. Henry C. Abell, formerly of Manhattan, Kansas has recently been appointed Agriculture instructor. He is a brother of Mr. W.E. Abell here. We welcome Mr. Abell and his family to our midst.

To Miss Pauline Rector our grateful thanks for leading us in assembly singing, and for directing the lovely singing for baccalaureate and commencement.

Mr. Allen Shepard, our printer, is still on an assignment at the Phoenix Indian School. This issue of "Chemawa American" and the January issue, (no issues in February or March,) have been the work of the print shop boys under direction of Joe Broncheau.

The Catholic group had a party in the gym on April 18 for those who had been confirmed and the ones who had baptismal certificates.

We danced, played games and every one had a good time. Refreshments of donuts and all the coffee we could drink were served.

The agriculture class, with the help of Mr. H. Abell and Mr. Mason's class, has made an attractive classroom out of the old sheet metal shop.
