

News Briefs

Mr. Homer Howard of the Indian Education office was in Chemawa November 4.

Mr. Herman Kunkle, former bandmaster at Chemawa, is now living at home in Waterbury, Connecticut.

Miss Alta Tom was employed for a while this fall as matron here. She has now returned to her former work at Siletz.

Miss Leta Starr, formerly hospital assistant at Chemawa, is now working in the Cushman hospital in Tacoma, Washington.

Mr. Raymond Dutoit, employed at Chemawa for seven years as farmer and mechanic, has accepted employment in Salem.

Miss Emily Zuidema, formerly chief nurse at the Chemawa hospital, is occupying the same position at Rosebud, South Dakota.

Miss Lizzie Manyan returned to her home in Salween, Arizona, to nurse a sick relative. Miss Manyan was matron in Brewer hall.

Mr. Warren Wilder, popularly known as "Lefty," is now working with Mr. Hobson in his business of crafts, arrow making and sign painting.

Miss Louisa Lawton, shop instructor for schools, was here during part of October. She gave the teachers instructions and help in carrying on their class projects.

Mrs. Edith Murphy, specialist on plants, was here for a period of three weeks. She was of service to the teachers and farmers. Mrs. Murphy is stationed at Warm Springs, Oregon.

Miss Ila Scott, formerly director of home economics, reported to Portland November 10 for induction into the Wacs. Miss Scott will go to Fort Des Moines, Iowa, for her basic training.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Abell have moved to Warm Springs, Oregon, where Mr. Abell is principal of the Warm Springs school. The family visited Mr. Henry Abell's family here on the campus lately.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilder at Chemawa hospital on Oct. 11 a son, christened Walter Albert. Mrs. Wilder is the former Genie Clark who had been employed as clerk in the Chemawa office for several years.

Miss Viola Schultz is now a member of the Waves. She is stationed at the Naval Training school at the Bronx in New York. Miss Schultz reports that the Waves lead a busy and interesting life. She was formerly a matron in Winona hall.

Class Organizations

The seniors have elected the following boys and girls for class officers: Ray Bennett, president; Glenn Fritzler, vice-president; Anita Grunlose, secretary; and Lawrence Patrick, sergeant-at-arms.

Junior class has elected class officers as follows: Bryson Liberty, president; Mary Agnes Simmons, vice-president; June Black, secretary; and George Miller, sergeant-at-arms.

The sophomore officers elected are: Harry Cooper, president; Nathan Dumont, vice-president; Alphonse Shippentower, secretary-treasurer; student representatives, June St. Peter, Jessie Miller and Earl Davis; sergeant-at-arms, Jimmy Chocktoot.

Freshman officers were elected as follows: Cleve Racehorse, president; Lester Charley, vice-president; Annabelle Summers, secretary-treasurer; Richard Hillaire, sergeant-at-arms.

Hobby Clubs

There are eleven clubs from which students may choose. These clubs represent a variety of interests.

The Bachelors' club of fifteen boys are learning to cook, under the direction of Mrs. Cronk. The boys are quite enthusiastic about this club.

Needlework, block printing, stenciling, and weaving are learned in the Crafts club. There are twenty-five girls in this group. Mrs. James is sponsor.

A club popular with the girls is Woodcraft, sponsored by Mr. Mason and Mr. Cleek. A limit of twenty members is necessary because of tool supply.

The First Aid club is directed by Dr. McCluskey. Their goal is to learn first aid practices and secure a First Aid card.

Mr. Speed sponsors the Metal club. The members are six girls and six boys. They make metal objects for room decoration and use.

The Art club is sponsored by Miss Shallanda. Twenty students study sketching, lettering, and various phases of art.

A Stone Cutting club is sponsored by Mr. Wilcox. Eight students are enjoying the fascinating hobby of cutting and polishing stones.

The Collectors club has sixteen members. They collect stamps, poetry, stones, snapshots, or whatever interests the individuals. Miss Dodrill is sponsor.

Mrs. Brannon is sponsoring a Spanish club and Mrs. Wilcox is in charge of a French club. Both are mainly conversational. (Continued on page 4)