Ag Barn-Warmer Party

The agricultural group sponsored a very successful party in the gymnasium on Friday evening, December 15. The students who had not enjoyed our was mentioned in dispatches of January 1944 as having charged a Jap machine gun nest alone, wiping out the gun crew with grenades.

Louis was a student here for three years and has many friends throughout this area. Sanford Beaudry, a brother, is in the Marine Corps.

all-dancing parties had fun this time for there were several forms of amusement. No "wallflowers" at this party.

One-half of the gymnasium was used for playing games, and the other half for dancing. Music was furnished by a fourpiece orchestra. Table games were played on the stage.

Decorations were harness, baled hay, cornstocks, and sacks of grain, complete with two calves, pigs, and chickens.

Notes from the Ag Class

Pruning of the peach orchard is finished and the boys are now working on the apple trees. Most of this pruning consists of heading back the tops of the trees as the trees are too tall to either pick or spray efficiently.

Classwork recently, besides pruning, has consisted of study and practice in culling laying hens.

Six of the boys have fattening pig projects, three have calf projects, one a dairy cow project, and the Ag class has charge of 50 hens in the small poultry house.

Senior Practice House

Senior girls are now getting some practical experience in keeping house. Four girls are in the house for three weeks. Each girl has a turn at each duty such as cook, chore girl, housekeeper, and hostess.

The senior girls are enjoying this experience and have shown cooperative spirit which makes the plan run smoothly. Mrs. Cronk is sponsor of this activity.
