

News Briefs

Miss Lena Sand is a new employee at the hospital.

Mrs. Anne Logan of Salem is teaching a grade school remedial group now.

Mrs. Hilda C. Hammel of Salem is employed here as teacher of the third grade.

Miss Juanita McCloud visited her sisters Velma and Carol over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Collins of Vancouver visited their daughter, Doryce, here on January 19 and 20.

Lawrence Orcutt has been hospitalized for some time, but now recovered. His mother visited him while he was ill.

Miss Ethel Mae Zieback of Pocatello, Idaho, is now teaching our eighth grade. She has taught at Pine Ridge, South Dakota.

Employees and students of Chemawa extend their sympathy to Mrs. Bray and Jackie in the death of Mr. John Wesley Bray.

Miss Nettie Goings has arrived to teach in the home economics department. Miss Goings transferred from the Standing Rock School, Belcourt, North Dakota.

Ben Iyall, Class of '33, who has been a prisoner of war in Germany the past two years, has been repatriated and arrived in the United States on the Gripsholm on February 21.

Employees and students extend their sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Evans for the loss of Mrs. Evans' father. The family went to Salt Lake City for the funeral. They have now returned to Chemawa.

Pfc. Carl G. Wood, graduate of '42 and former printing student, visited the school for a few days last month. Carl had been wounded in France and was here on a furlough from a recuperating center.

Richard Larsen visited friends here January 17. He has finished his training period at Farragut, Idaho. Richard gave a very interesting talk to his classmates, the seniors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Needham were visitors here January 28. They brought Augustine Thompson back from Cushman hospital. Mrs. Needham is our former Dr. Faxon.

Pvt. Victor Metoxen visited his family here recently. He has been in the Pacific area of service for three years and was wounded in the recent battle for Leyte. Pvt. Metoxen is now recuperating in McCaw hospital at Walla Walla.

Mr. Earling C. Benson has accepted the position of instructor of all shops here. Mr. Benson has had much experience in work of this kind, part of which was in Hawaii. Mr. and Mrs. Benson are living in the house formerly occupied by the Cleeks.

We extend our sympathy to the Spalding family for the loss of Mr. Nels Olson, Mrs. Spalding's father. Mr. Olson has resided with Mr. and Mrs. Spalding for several years.

Scout Troops

Girl Scout Troop I has recently been reorganized and now has sixteen members. All are busy and hope to pass their tenderfoot tests before school closes. Mrs. Mason is scout leader.

The Boy Scout Troop has twenty-two members preparing for tenderfoot tests. Mr. Thompson is scoutmaster, and LeRoy Gill is assistant scoutmaster. Herbert Pepion is patrol leader and Eugene Pollock is assistant.

The Boy Scouts have collected 1000 pounds of paper for the paper drive and delivered it to the War Center in Salem. They will work on the tin drive soon. Plans are being made for a field trip and for an overnight camping trip.

Senior Practice House

The senior girls have all lived in their practice house now, and the last group will be out soon. The experience has been both educational and enjoyable. Most of the girls would like to start right over again.

We Point With Pride To:

☞ Harry Cooper and the boys in the shoe shop for the job they are doing in keeping the shoes repaired. The boys repair from eighty to a hundred pairs of shoes a week. Harry is a sophomore.

☞ Wellington Byrd and Fred Miller for their work as school electricians. They do general maintenance, such as keeping the laundry appliances in smooth working order, repairing irons, checking outlets, lines, and lighting systems wherever needed. Wellington and Fred are juniors.

☞ Glenn Fritzier and Lawrence Patrick for their fine work in the barber shop. These boys are both seniors and thus are in the shop the same half-day, so the shop is open only half the time. They try to get around with haircuts for our 246 boys once every twenty-one days. They also cut the girls' hair.

Dr. F. J. Bullard is now at Chemawa for a period doing dental work for our students.

In this issue of Chemawa American we have attempted to give some facts about several vocational departments. Lack of space prevents a complete report. Some other departments will appear in later issues.
