Commencement Events

The 1945 Commencement exercises were the fiftieth since the founding of Chemawa in 1885. This year's class of 22 members, represented 18 tribes from 6 states. Many parents and relatives, together with alumni and ex-students, were present. Following the graduation program, there was a reception at Winona Hall. At supper the same evening the class had a special table for themselves and guests. The farewell dance was enjoyed in the gym, to end the festivities.
